Way Cleared For Ohio's Tax Boosts

House Voting Set Tuesday On Bill To Increase 3.2 Beer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Majority Democrats have cleared the legislative track for tax increase measures under the urging of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

The House scheduled a vote Tuesday on a bill to boost revenue from 3.2 beer about four million dollars over a two-year period by raising the tax from $1.50 to $2.50 a barrel in line with the levy on high-power beer.

Next week the House expects to vote on an increase of two cents a gallon in the state tax on gasoline to raise an extra 116 million dollars during the biennium.

The following week should see a floor vote on a proposal to boost the state tax on cigarettes two cents a pack. That measure, expected to yield an extra 46 million dollars, is slated for House Taxation Committee recommendation Wednesday despite an attempt by tobacco dealers to cut the increase.

The first of DiSalle's tax increase bills already has cleared the House and is pending in the Senate. It will double the corporation franchise tax in the expectation of picking up an extra 15 million dollars.

Hearings resume during the week in the Senate Taxation Committee on a program to extend the state sales tax to retail purchases between 16 and 40 cents, inclusive, and make other upward revisions. Estimated increases exceed 150 million dollars.

DiSalle emphasized his desire to abandon use of sales tax stamps in the face of mounting pressure against the move by retailers and many organizations that redeem them at 3 per cent of face value.

Legislative leaders predict that several tax increases will be enacted within a few weeks to start early collection of higher revenues to bolster Ohio's nearly empty coffers. Tax laws take effect upon enactment.

Committees of both houses fattened their hearing schedules in the hope of speeding action on other measures to avoid an unusually long legislative session.

The Senate Agriculture and Conservation Committee turns tonight to a House-passed measure allowing quail hunting on lands under state control.

Interest in measures before House committees focused on those to transfer power of the State Liquor Board to the liquor director, create a Dairy Marketing Division in the Agriculture Department, increase diesel fuel taxes and liberalize the formula for setting utility rates.

Other hearings are scheduled on proposals to remove the $65 monthly ceilings on old age pensions, require protection at railroad crossings and allow 18-year-olds to vote. Hearings also will continue on the general appropriations bill under attack because it carries "lump sum" appropriations instead of itemizing the purposes for which the money can be spent.

Drive Pushed By Red Cross

North Hancock Unit Extends Fund Plea

Officials of the North Hancock County Red Cross Chapter have extended the 1959 fund campaign, which began in mid-March, because of failure to reach a goal of $5,451.

William Mackall of Chester, campaign chairman, said donations are "lagging behind" and the drive will have to be extended until the complete goal is reached.

Still to be solicited are business houses in Newell and rural areas in northern Hancock, he said. At present, the campaign is $2,420 short of the 1959 goal.

Mackall, secretary-treasurer of the National Church Supply Co., is being assisted by Jack Berry of Chester. Donors may mail contributions or contact other community chairmen, including Donald Hood of Chester or Mrs. Earl Bell of New Cumberland. The Chapter's headquarters is located in the Aaron Building in Newell.

The unit must realize the full quota as its disaster relief fund was diminished when aid was authorized for flood-stricken New Cumberland residents earlier this year, Mackall said.

Nehru Walks Tightrope In Tibet Change

Fugitive Dalai Lama Continues His Slow Journey Into India

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—As the fugitive Dalai Lama continued his slow journey into India on foot, Prime Minister Nehru cautioned that India must steer a careful course between treaty obligations to Red China and sympathy for the Tibetan rebels.

The young god-king of Tibet and his party of 80 reached Towang, near India's isolated northeast frontier, Sunday at about the same time the Red Chinese were installing the rival Panchen Lama in the Tibetan capital of Lhasa.

As the exiled ruler neared the approaches to Towang Monastery, hundreds of tribesmen adorned with colorful sash-decorated hats and silver swords sent up a cheer.

It was believed the next stage of the journey, to Tazpur on the Bramaputra River in Assam state, would take another six days. Much of the route must be covered on foot, since it lies through more of the rugged Himalayan country over which the Tibetans fled from the Communists after the failure of the revolt in Lhasa.

After five days of marching, they can switch to Indian army jeeps at Bamdilla, in the foothills 68 miles from Towang, and farther along to an Indian air force plane which could take the fugitive ruler and his top aides to New Delhi or wherever the Indian government wants them.

Nehru told a news conference Sunday that the Dalai Lama probably would not stay near the frontier.

Nehru has said the Tibetan spiritual and political leader will be treated as an "honored guest". He made clear the Indian government will recognize him as spiritual leader of the Tibetan Buddhists but will not let him form a government in exile.

Nehru told his news conference his government is still faithful to its treaty of coexistence with Red China, although India is "obviously interested and concerned about what happens" in Tibet.

India, he said, must arrive at a balance among three main considerations in meeting "difficult and embarrassing situations already created that may continue."

The considerations, he said, are (1) India's security, (2) her desire to maintain cordial relations with Red China, and (3) the Indian people's strong sympathy for the Tibetans.

Strong Gusts Of Wind Herald Chilly Weather

Heavy gusts of wind that ranged up to 40-45 miles an hour howled through the East Liverpool district late Sunday night and early this morning, heralding the arrival of chilly weather.

The strong winds were reported shortly before midnight and again between 4:30 and 6 this morning, but no serious damage resulted.

The Ohio weatherman said today's high will range between 54 and 58 degrees, contrasted with the 71-degree high recorded at 4 p. m. yesterday at Dam 8. The overnight low was 40.

The low tonight will be 38-43. Tuesday will be windy and warmer with a chance of afternoon or evening showers.

Hunt Pressed In Maryland Prison Break

JESSUPS, Md. (AP)—Hundreds of state police, National Guardsmen, county police and Marines captured more fugitives today from a mass prison break at the Patuxent Institution.

Fourteen of the 34 young inmates who overpowered guards and broke out of the Institution for Defective Delinquents Sunday night were still at large.

Two others who might be from Patuxent were picked up in southern Maryland's Calvert County and could reduce the number to 12.

State Police Lt. W. W. Corbin said two airplanes flying low over the area had accounted for the capture of six prisoners early today.

Inmates made their break about 7 p.m. Sunday by seizing keys from two unarmed guards and unlocking six doors between them and freedom. State Supt. of Prisons James W. Curran said it was the largest break in the history of Maryland prisons.

Corbin estimated at least 300 men were taking part in the search today for fugitives from the institution of 331 inmates 15 miles southwest of Baltimore.

Boy At Lisbon Struck By Car

Utility Pole Snapped In Another Mishap

An 11-year-old Lisbon boy was injured when struck by a car on Route 30 near his home Sunday night according to the State Highway Patrol, which also reported a Substation utility pole was snapped in half when struck by a car early yesterday morning.

Dan Blythe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Blythe of Wellsville Ave., just south of Lisbon, is in "fairly good" condition today at Salem Central Clinic with fractures of the left leg and abrasions of the forehead.

The patrol at Lisbon said the boy, a sixth grade student at McKinley School, ran from the east side of the roadway into the path of a car driven by Ralph Anderson, 36, of Bethel Park, Pa. The mishap occurred about 200 feet south of the village limits at 7:50 p. m.

A car driven by James Fortney, 21, of Warren veered off Route 30 near Hoge's Restaurant and struck a utility pole, breaking it in half, but not causing any damage to the wires.

Officers said Fortney was passing a semi-trailer truck when he saw another vehicle approaching. Fortney cut back into his own lane, but lost control and his sedan hit the pole. He was charged with unsafe operation.

An Ohio Power Co. crew is replacing the pole this morning.

Police Question Man For Girl's Gun Death

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Allegheny County detectives are holding John J. Baskitis, 21, of Elizabeth for questioning in connection with the fatal shooting of his girl friend, a stenographer for the FBI in Washington.

Baskitis told detectives he accidentally killed Miss Myrna Evans, 19, while twirling a .38-caliber revolver on his finger as they sat in a parked auto on a secluded road in nearby Forward Twp. early Sunday.

Russia Hurls New Charges In Plane Case

Says U.S. Violation Was Deliberate In Bid To Snag Talks

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has charged that the United States deliberately violated altitude regulations in the West Berlin air corridor to wreck the forthcoming East-West talks.

The State Department withheld official comment, but U.S. informants in Washington said the United States had no such intention when it sent a C130 transport into West Berlin at 20,000 feet last week.

The U.S. Embassy in Moscow received the latest accusation in a diplomatic note. Meanwhile, U.S. officials in Germany turned down a Soviet complaint that the plane, which was buzzed by Soviet fighters, became a safety hazard when it flew into Berlin March 27. The Soviets claim Allied planes in the corridor are prohibited from going above 10,000 feet.

The new Soviet protest said the Soviet government would not permit anything to hamper the foreign ministers' conference opening in Geneva May 11 and "is doing everything to make these negotiations easier."

But the note said it was difficult "not to consider the premeditated violation by American aircraft of the established order of air communication with Berlin as other than the intention of the United States to worsen conditions for the foreign ministers' meeting, if not to wreck altogether the already reached agreement to hold East-West talks."

The U.S. position is that there is no legal ceiling in the Berlin air corridors and that planes can fly at any altitude desirable in ferrying supplies for the Allies.

The issue did not arise with older, propeller-driven planes which stayed below 10,000 feet. But the C130 is a turboprop aircraft which operates most efficiently at high altitudes. The United States, determined to establish its right to use any level in the corridor, reportedly plans to send additional high-level planes to and from West Berlin. The C130 could haul considerably more cargo than older planes if the Communists close land routes to West Berlin and the Allies try to supply their garrisons by airlift.

Council Slates Passage Of Income Tax Tonight

Acting for the third time on an ordinance levying a new municipal income tax, Council expects to vote final passage at its meeting tonight at 8.

But the ordinance will not go into effect for 30 days because it does not contain an emergency clause. It establishes a tax of 60 cents on each $100 of earnings or other income, including non-residents and "foreign" corporations.

In that 30 days, opposing individuals or groups will be able to circulate petitions seeking a referendum at the November general election, which would hold up collection of the tax, meanwhile.

The tax ordinance was given first reading March 23 and second reading March 30, both times by a 6-1 vote.

Clubs Raided In Campbell And Warren

Pinball Machines Seized In Cuyahoga And Belmont Areas

CLEVELAND (AP) — State liquor agents raided after-hours clubs in two northeastern Ohio counties over the weekend and confiscated pinball machines in two other counties.

The raids were in Warren and Campbell, a suburb of Youngstown. Two play-for-pay pinball machines were confiscated in Cuyahoga County Saturday night. A like number were found in Belmont County.

The biggest raid was on Warren's southwest side at 3:45 a.m. Sunday. A raiding party led by Henry K. Williams, assistant state liquor enforcement chief, battered down a door of the Tropical Restaurant with sledge hammers. Inside, they reported about 75 persons were drinking and gambling.

"The joint had no permit," Williams said, and added:

"The patrons were drinking, sitting and loitering. One of our agents, who got in as a customer, told us seven persons were playing poker in a house-sponsored game."

Th epatrons were sent home, but a bartender and two barmaids were held.

Four other persons were arrested as suspects in the damaging of a Trumbull County sheriff's cruiser used in the raid. Keys were pulled from the ignition and thrown away and the radio-telephone was jerked from the car, which was parked outside during the raid.

A short time later the raiders turned up at the Forty Club in downtown Campbell. The club, a private one, was cited for three liquor violations. None of the 35 persons in the club was arrested.

In Cuyahoga County, pinball machines, which agents said were used as gambling devices, were confiscated in the Cleveland suburbs of Bedford Heights and Solon.

William Galayda, Canton district liquor chief, reported an influx of pinball machines in Belmont County. He said two had been confiscated.

Construction Walkout Hits Stark County

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Some 600 Stark County construction workers struck today over new contract demands and some picket lines were set up.

The bricklayers have announced they will not cross picket lines, and other building trades unionists are expected to remain off their jobs. This means the walkout could affect about 3,000 building trades workers in the county.

Local 521, International Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers Union, voted Sunday to strike.

At issue is a demand by the laborers for a wage increase of 25 cents an hour, an additional 10 cents an hour for welfare, and double time pay for overtime instead of the present time and half. The demands cover a one-year agreement to replace the one which expired Tuesday.

The Construction Council of Stark County, Inc., representing the builders, has offered a two-year contract providing a 10-cent-an hour increase in each year of the agreement. The offer was rejected by the union, said George T. Tuefel, Local 521 business agent.

A federal mediator and union representatives will meet today.

Ann Hocking Of St. Aloysius

Local Girl Wins In Parochial Bee

Little Ann Hocking has a lot to talk about today.

Not only did the fifth-grader at St. Aloysius School succeed her sister, Kay, as the county parochial school spelling champion Saturday, but in winning the title she also defeated another sister, Mary, who is a seventh-grader.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hocking, 530 Elizabeth St., Ann will represent the parochial schools in the district spelling bee final April 24 at Canton.

Ann won the crown in the bee at St. Aloysius School when Cecilia Kalafus of Leetonia St. Patrick's spelled "advice" with an "s" instead of a "c." Ann spelled "advice" correctly and clinched the title by spelling "direction."

Cecilia also comes from a family of spellers. Her brother, John, won the parochial title a few years ago and a sister was runnerup.

Another St. Patrick's student, Barbara Vidumanski, finished third, being eliminated when she misspelled "alcohol."

Mary Catherine Gilloly of Our Lady of Lourdes School in East Palestine was the first to hear the judges' bell when she got started wrong on "kerosene." Her companion, Barbara Sulli-

Two-Hour Telecast

Tonight's Oscar Program Could Even Top 'Colossal'

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Debbie Reynolds won't be there to face Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth, but Hollywood may still have to find a better adjective than colossal to properly describe tonight's big Academy Awards show.

A two-hour telecast, without commercials, will begin at 10:30 p.m., EST, over NBC-TV. More than 100 of the biggest names in moviedom will be seen.

For a while it looked as if Hollywood's most famous triangle might give the show a backstage suspense no script could hope to match.

But Miss Reynolds removed herself from the show Saturday. She said she will watch it at home on TV.

Debbie insisted Liz had nothing to do with her pulling out of the show.

She was to have presented an Oscar to one of the winners, the same chore Miss Taylor will perform.

Fisher, taking a night off from a hotel engagement in Las Vegas, will sing one of the nominated songs — "To Love and Be Loved."

With the triangle only two-thirds present, it looks as if the Oscar winners themselves will star in the big show. Hollywoodites can't remember a closer race for the prize Oscars than this year's.

It is especially close among the five nominated for best actress. Rosalind Russell, Shirley Maclaine, Susan Hayward, Deborah Kerr and Miss Taylor all could win without stirring a ripple of surprise.

Among the men, most experts figure David Niven to take the top male Oscar, although Sidney Poitier, the brilliant Negro actor, has come up strong in recent weeks. The other three nominated are Tony Curtis, Spencer Tracy and Paul Newman.

"Gigi" still is the favorite for best picture, but is being pressed by "Auntie Mame," one of the screen's funniest comedies. The others, and all rate a chance, are "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," The Defiant Ones," and "Separate Tables."

Among the supporting actors and actresses, Burl Ives and Lee J. Cobb are favorites among the men and Martha Hyer and Wendy Hiller favored among the ladies.

Liquor Aide Will Testify Before Jury

Letters Are Sent To Prosecutors And Sheriffs In Areas

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle today named Jefferson and Belmont as the counties where officials were ordered to close down big-time gambling a week ago.

The governor said he does not know whether the gambling casinos have closed.

At the request of the Jefferson County prosecutor, DiSalle said a state liquor agent will testify Thursday before a grand jury investigating gambling.

The agent was a member of a special Liquor Department squadron that entered the gambling casinos to observe and take part in poker, dice games and other gambling activities.

DiSalle said Belmont County prosecutor has announced that mayors in his area have assured him they will cooperate to clamp down on gambling.

The governor announced March 30 that he had sent letters to prosecutors and sheriffs of two unnamed counties to close down gambling or face public exposure.

The action was in line with the governor's policy of giving local officials a week to close down gambling before exposure. He said that method worked in another county, also unnamed.

At the time of the announcement, DiSalle said cars with Nevada license plates were observed outside one of the gambling casinos. A check showed the licenses were issued to Nevada gambling operators.

DiSalle said today that gambling spot was in Jefferson County but he declined to identify the place further. He also withheld identity of the Belmont County establishment.

Asked if a Senate resolution calling for an investigation of liquor agents looking for gambling stemmed from the eastern Ohio situation, the governor asserted that might be the case.

Senator Arthur Blake (D-Belmont) drafted the resolution but agreed to withhold its introduction until this week at the behest of Senate leaders. Blake's senatorial district includes Belmont, Jefferson, Harrison and Columbiana counties.

Blake claimed the liquor squads were checking on other state employes.

The governor said the liquor investigators assigned to check on gambling were nothing new. Flying squadrons have been used by previous administrations for that purpose, DiSalle said, adding that newspapers recently had dubbed them "super-duper" squads.

He added that reports of gambling in other counties are under investigation. The counties were not named. DiSalle emphasized that the state lacked facilities to move directly against gambling. Local officials are responsible for wiping it out, he added.

East German Family Crashes Iron Curtain

BRUNSWICK, Germany (AP)—Taken by surprise, Communist border guards failed to stop an East German family of ten from crashing through the Iron Curtain in a seven-ton truck.

Friedrich Graefe, 47, said he, his wife and eight children, aged 2 to 13, left East Germany for political and economic reasons.

Graefe was not halted when he approached the frontier as his truck had a special permit for the area. The guards were caught off balance when the vehicle crashed through the barbed wire fence separating the two halves of Germany.

CLEVELAND (AP) — State liquor agents raided after-hours clubs in two northeastern Ohio counties over the weekend and confiscated pinball machines in two other counties.

The raids were in Warren and Campbell, a suburb of Youngstown. Two play-for-pay pinball machines were confiscated in Cuyahoga County Saturday night. A like number were found in Belmont County.

The biggest raid was on Warren's southwest side at 3:45 a.m. Sunday. A raiding party led by Henry K. Williams, assistant state liquor enforcement chief, battered down a door of the Tropical Restaurant with sledge hammers. Inside, they reported about 75 persons were drinking and gambling.

"The joint had no permit," Williams said, and added:

"The patrons were drinking, sitting and loitering. One of our agents, who got in as a customer, told us seven persons were playing poker in a house-sponsored game."

Th epatrons were sent home, but a bartender and two barmaids were held.

Four other persons were arrested as suspects in the damaging of a Trumbull County sheriff's cruiser used in the raid. Keys were pulled from the ignition and thrown away and the radio-telephone was jerked from the car, which was parked outside during the raid.

A short time later the raiders turned up at the Forty Club in downtown Campbell. The club, a private one, was cited for three liquor violations. None of the 35 persons in the club was arrested.

In Cuyahoga County, pinball machines, which agents said were used as gambling devices, were confiscated in the Cleveland suburbs of Bedford Heights and Solon.

William Galayda, Canton district liquor chief, reported an influx of pinball machines in Belmont County. He said two had been confiscated.

Construction Walkout Hits Stark County

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Some 600 Stark County construction workers struck today over new contract demands and some picket lines were set up.

The bricklayers have announced they will not cross picket lines, and other building trades unionists are expected to remain off their jobs. This means the walkout could affect about 3,000 building trades workers in the county.

Local 521, International Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers Union, voted Sunday to strike.

At issue is a demand by the laborers for a wage increase of 25 cents an hour, an additional 10 cents an hour for welfare, and double time pay for overtime instead of the present time and half. The demands cover a one-year agreement to replace the one which expired Tuesday.

The Construction Council of Stark County, Inc., representing the builders, has offered a two-year contract providing a 10-cent-an hour increase in each year of the agreement. The offer was rejected by the union, said George T. Tuefel, Local 521 business agent.

A federal mediator and union representatives will meet today.

Ann Hocking Of St. Aloysius

Local Girl Wins In Parochial Bee

Little Ann Hocking has a lot to talk about today.

Not only did the fifth-grader at St. Aloysius School succeed her sister, Kay, as the county parochial school spelling champion Saturday, but in winning the title she also defeated another sister, Mary, who is a seventh-grader.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hocking, 530 Elizabeth St., Ann will represent the parochial schools in the district spelling bee final April 24 at Canton.

Ann won the crown in the bee at St. Aloysius School when Cecilia Kalafus of Leetonia St. Patrick's spelled "advice" with an "s" instead of a "c." Ann spelled "advice" correctly and clinched the title by spelling "direction."

Cecilia also comes from a family of spellers. Her brother, John, won the parochial title a few years ago and a sister was runnerup.

Another St. Patrick's student, Barbara Vidumanski, finished third, being eliminated when she misspelled "alcohol."

Mary Catherine Gilloly of Our Lady of Lourdes School in East Palestine was the first to hear the judges' bell when she got started wrong on "kerosene." Her companion, Barbara Sulli-

Two-Hour Telecast

Tonight's Oscar Program Could Even Top 'Colossal'

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Debbie Reynolds won't be there to face Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth, but Hollywood may still have to find a better adjective than colossal to properly describe tonight's big Academy Awards show.

A two-hour telecast, without commercials, will begin at 10:30 p.m., EST, over NBC-TV. More than 100 of the biggest names in moviedom will be seen.

For a while it looked as if Hollywood's most famous triangle might give the show a backstage suspense no script could hope to match.

But Miss Reynolds removed herself from the show Saturday. She said she will watch it at home on TV.

Debbie insisted Liz had nothing to do with her pulling out of the show.

She was to have presented an Oscar to one of the winners, the same chore Miss Taylor will perform.

Fisher, taking a night off from a hotel engagement in Las Vegas, will sing one of the nominated songs — "To Love and Be Loved."

With the triangle only two-thirds present, it looks as if the Oscar winners themselves will star in the big show. Hollywoodites can't remember a closer race for the prize Oscars than this year's.

It is especially close among the five nominated for best actress. Rosalind Russell, Shirley Maclaine, Susan Hayward, Deborah Kerr and Miss Taylor all could win without stirring a ripple of surprise.

Among the men, most experts figure David Niven to take the top male Oscar, although Sidney Poitier, the brilliant Negro actor, has come up strong in recent weeks. The other three nominated are Tony Curtis, Spencer Tracy and Paul Newman.

"Gigi" still is the favorite for best picture, but is being pressed by "Auntie Mame," one of the screen's funniest comedies. The others, and all rate a chance, are "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," The Defiant Ones," and "Separate Tables."

Among the supporting actors and actresses, Burl Ives and Lee J. Cobb are favorites among the men and Martha Hyer and Wendy Hiller favored among the ladies.

Liquor Aide Will Testify Before Jury

Letters Are Sent To Prosecutors And Sheriffs In Areas

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle today named Jefferson and Belmont as the counties where officials were ordered to close down big-time gambling a week ago.

The governor said he does not know whether the gambling casinos have closed.

At the request of the Jefferson County prosecutor, DiSalle said a state liquor agent will testify Thursday before a grand jury investigating gambling.

The agent was a member of a special Liquor Department squadron that entered the gambling casinos to observe and take part in poker, dice games and other gambling activities.

DiSalle said Belmont County prosecutor has announced that mayors in his area have assured him they will cooperate to clamp down on gambling.

The governor announced March 30 that he had sent letters to prosecutors and sheriffs of two unnamed counties to close down gambling or face public exposure.

The action was in line with the governor's policy of giving local officials a week to close down gambling before exposure. He said that method worked in another county, also unnamed.

At the time of the announcement, DiSalle said cars with Nevada license plates were observed outside one of the gambling casinos. A check showed the licenses were issued to Nevada gambling operators.

DiSalle said today that gambling spot was in Jefferson County but he declined to identify the place further. He also withheld identity of the Belmont County establishment.

Asked if a Senate resolution calling for an investigation of liquor agents looking for gambling stemmed from the eastern Ohio situation, the governor asserted that might be the case.

Senator Arthur Blake (D-Belmont) drafted the resolution but agreed to withhold its introduction until this week at the behest of Senate leaders. Blake's senatorial district includes Belmont, Jefferson, Harrison and Columbiana counties.

Blake claimed the liquor squads were checking on other state employes.

The governor said the liquor investigators assigned to check on gambling were nothing new. Flying squadrons have been used by previous administrations for that purpose, DiSalle said, adding that newspapers recently had dubbed them "super-duper" squads.

He added that reports of gambling in other counties are under investigation. The counties were not named. DiSalle emphasized that the state lacked facilities to move directly against gambling. Local officials are responsible for wiping it out, he added.

East German Family Crashes Iron Curtain

BRUNSWICK, Germany (AP)—Taken by surprise, Communist border guards failed to stop an East German family of ten from crashing through the Iron Curtain in a seven-ton truck.

Friedrich Graefe, 47, said he, his wife and eight children, aged 2 to 13, left East Germany for political and economic reasons.

Graefe was not halted when he approached the frontier as his truck had a special permit for the area. The guards were caught off balance when the vehicle crashed through the barbed wire fence separating the two halves of Germany.

Man Saws Down Tree, Cuts Off Power Service

A man who sawed down a tree on Route 267 near Swaney Airport Sunday noon inadvertently caused an electric power interruption that continued more than three hours in a widespread section of the Cannons Mills-Route 30 area and part of Glenmoor.

The Ohio Power Co. reported the falling tree hit a 12,000-volt line, stretching it nearly to the ground, so that it had to be cut to be repaired.

The power interruption hit all of Cannons Mills and West Point, a nearby section of Route 30 and parts of Glenmoor. The cutoff came a few minutes after noon. Some homes had power again at 1. The major area was back in service at 2:10 and electricity was restored to the last few homes at 3:19, Ohio Power said.

Boy's Slayer Being Hunted In Wisconsin

GRAFTON, Wis. (AP)—Authorities pushed an intensive manhunt today for the slayer of a 6-year-old boy kidnaped while on the way to a store and found dead of stab wounds in a roadside ditch.

The body of Ben Wagner of Milwaukee was found by a newspaper delivery man making his morning rounds Sunday. Grafton is 15 miles north of Milwaukee.

Ben still had seven cents in ice cream money clenched in his fist. He had been stabbed five times.

An autopsy performed by Dr. L. J. Van Hecke, Milwaukee County medical examiner, showed the boy had not been sexually molested."

The boy's father, Louis Wagner, 38, wept as he identified the body of his only son. Wagner works in a Milwaukee auto frame factory.

Christ Wilhelm, 6, a playmate of young Ben, told police they met in an alley near their home and that he saw a stranger lure Ben into a car and drive off. The Wilhelm boy said that the man asked them if they wanted a ride and he said no.

Milton Geiger of Milwaukee told police he was driving on Highway 141 Saturday night when he saw a boy frantically waving from the front seat of another automobile. Geiger said he chased the car but lost sight of it when it turned onto a side road.

It will take you about 4 minutes to find out why

It Pays to Own a Dodge!

(It could save you hundreds of dollars!)

Okay, it's settled. You've thought about it and talked about it and now you've decided: A new car—and soon. Now for the jackpot question. Which '59 car will it be?

Unless you happen to be a Mr. Gotrocks, you'll probably think pretty carefully before you finally make the move. You'll do more shopping and compare more closely. And you'll ask yourself some basic questions. How much will a new car cost me to buy? How much will it cost me to drive? What do I get for my money?

There is no mystery about new car prices

Until this year, it was hard to compare different makes of cars to find which offered the most value for the money. It was like comparing apples and bananas. But not any more. Not since all new cars are required to carry price labels. Now, for the first time, you can compare various makes and models and see exactly what you're getting for your money. It's like exposing the hole cards in a game of stud poker: You know exactly where you stand.

Why should you buy a Dodge?

No one has to tell you that there are a number of cars on the market that sell for less than a Dodge. No cigar on that count. You know it and we know it. But there are things you get in a Dodge that you simply can't get in these other smaller cars.

And this is important. Dodge gives you all of these things—the bigness and roominess, the comfort and ride, the luxury and prestige—for less than other cars in its field.

It's not just a few dollars less, either; in many cases it's literally hundreds of dollars less. Some Dodge models are even priced lower than the so-called "low-priced cars." (We'll be happy to show you the actual suggested retail prices.)

All cars cost money to run—but how much?

It would be nice if you just bought a new car and that was that. It didn't burn gas. Didn't use oil. Never needed service. But that's wishful thinking. Cars do use gas and oil. They do need service occasionally. But that doesn't mean that all cars cost the same to drive and maintain. Not by a jugful. There's a big difference.

Dodge is designed to run for less

Dodge has always had a reputation for economical operation. People who have owned them have found it costs less to run a Dodge, and that a Dodge needs service less often.

Take gasoline economy. The new Dodge 326 cu. in. Red Ram V-8 engine, because of its design and efficiency, will take you miles farther on a gallon of gas than any other V-8 in the Dodge field. You save money every mile you drive.

But that's only part of the story. The way Dodge is engineered and built saves you money on such things as engine wear, brake relining, tune-ups, spark plug replacement. When you add them all up, they represent quite a saving. Another reason why it pays to own a Dodge.

What do you get for what you pay?

According to Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Prices, Dodge generally costs less, model for model, than other cars in its field. Fine and dandy. But while price is important, it isn't the only consideration. The real standard of value—whether you're buying a new car or a can of beans—is what you get for what you pay. It's the "extras" you get at no extra cost that really determine which car is the best buy.

Dodge gives you more for less

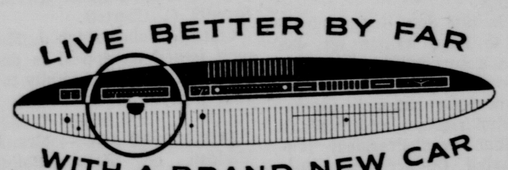

Talk is cheap. Anyone can make claims. So let's be specific about the extras you get in Dodge at no extra cost. Torsion-Aire Ride—conceded the finest suspension in the industry—standard equipment on all Dodge models. Total-Contact Brakes, Safety-Rim Wheels, Electric Windshield Wipers, Independent Parking Brake—all standard on Dodge. Of course, you can also choose from such Dodge options as Push-Button Driving, Full-Time Power Steering and Swing-Out Swivel Seats.

There's a big difference in comfort, too

Goodness knows, we certainly don't want to knock competition. But we feel obligated to point out the comfort and convenience of the '59 Dodge. If you've tried getting into some of the other '59 cars you know just what we mean. To say it is difficult would honestly be an understatement. That's why we hope you'll come in and compare the difference in Dodge. How much easier it is to get in and out of a Dodge. How much more comfortable it is to sit in a Dodge. How much more room you have to stretch out. Really, it pays to own a Dodge.

It doesn't cost a penny to get the facts

We don't expect you to rush in and plunk down your money for a new Dodge just on the basis of what you've read. But if what you've read seems to make sense, we do hope you'll stop in to see, to drive and to price a Dodge. We think it's a whale of a buy, but then maybe we're prejudiced. Why not drop in and judge for yourself. We'll be more than happy to give you all the facts. No obligation, of course.

Man Saws Down Tree, Cuts Off Power Service

A man who sawed down a tree on Route 267 near Swaney Airport Sunday noon inadvertently caused an electric power interruption that continued more than three hours in a widespread section of the Cannons Mills-Route 30 area and part of Glenmoor.

The Ohio Power Co. reported the falling tree hit a 12,000-volt line, stretching it nearly to the ground, so that it had to be cut to be repaired.

The power interruption hit all of Cannons Mills and West Point, a nearby section of Route 30 and parts of Glenmoor. The cutoff came a few minutes after noon. Some homes had power again at 1. The major area was back in service at 2:10 and electricity was restored to the last few homes at 3:19, Ohio Power said.

The body of Ben Wagner of Milwaukee was found by a newspaper delivery man making his morning rounds Sunday. Grafton is 15 miles north of Milwaukee.

Ben still had seven cents in ice cream money clenched in his fist. He had been stabbed five times.

An autopsy performed by Dr. L. J. Van Hecke, Milwaukee County medical examiner, showed the boy had not been sexually molested."

The boy's father, Louis Wagner, 38, wept as he identified the body of his only son. Wagner works in a Milwaukee auto frame factory.

And No One Cracks A Smile

There's a story about counterfeiters who were so carried away by enthusiasm for their easy way of making money that they turned out a batch of $18 bills. It seemed to be a better idea than fooling with phony $10 bills.

Then the question came up about passing the $18 bills. It was going to be tougher than getting rid of tens. So the counterfeiters figured out that the best place to go was somewhere so far from the main stem that the natives wouldn't know the difference.

Having arrived at the far corner of Hell's Half Acre, they picked a victim and asked him if he could make change for an $18 bill. The local yokel never cracked a smile. He took out a roll and peeled off a $9 and three $3.

No one cracked a smile . . .

These are times when any speechwriter who can turn out a good speech to explain inflation can write his own ticket. The subject is timely.

On April 2, Robert C. Tyson, chairman of U.S. Steel's finance committee, made a good speech about inflation to the New York Chamber of Commerce. Whether he wrote it himself is inconsequential. One passage alone was worth the listening:

"If a group of people gets a billion dollars more they will spend more—no argument. If a group of people gets a billion dollars less they will spend less—again, no argument. There is no way for the steel union group to get an unearned billion dollars more without others undeservedly getting a billion dollars less—except that an additional billion dollars be, in effect, printed up, and this is pure inflation."

It also is pure counterfeiting, if you think of it that way.

The boys turn out a batch of $18 bills, trade them for $9s and $3s and no one cracks a smile. That is what it amounts to when money has no value behind it.

The whole thing is done dead-pan. The rest of us are supposed to go along with the gag by pretending that the $18 bills, the $9 bills and the $3 are orthodox money and to make change for it with honest bills and currency. Meaning, of course, that we are letting the funny-money switchers take it out of our hides.

And no one cracks a smile. . .

A Fact That Is Worth Repeating

Charles E. Spahr, president of the Standard Oil Co. (Ohio), has pointed out a fact about gasoline taxes that is worth repeating whenever and wherever legislators are asked to consider increases in the rate.

"High gasoline taxes made the small foreign car a thing of necessity in Europe," he declared in a statement this week. "Every foreign car purchased in America in place of an American-made car has a depressing effect right here in Ohio."

The moral in this statement cannot be disregarded, whether it is gasoline taxation or some other form of taxation that is being discussed.

Resistance to taxation is one of the basic realities of government. Up to a certain point, taxes will be accepted without a struggle. Beyond that point, the struggle to minimize their effect begins to offset the expectancy of higher yield as rates are boosted.

By the same token, it can be argued with sound logic that the way to increase revenue in some instances is to lower the tax rate. The secret is to decrease tax resistance and thereby to increase revenue.

Those small European cars that have taken America's eye are not small because Europeans preferred small cars. They had to be small to compensate for exorbitant taxes on fuel, accessories and the cars themselves.

Europeans would have preferred to drive larger cars. But only wealthy Europeans could afford to drive larger cars. If the time ever comes when only wealthy Americans can afford large cars, it won't matter any more how many cents a gallon may be added to gas taxes. Most Americans will be riding bicycles.

Talk Is As Cheap As Ever

It now seems probable that when events involving Egypt, Iraq and the Soviet Union have simmered down, the net result as far as the United States is concerned will have added up to nothing.

Though it cannot be said that President Nasser, Premier Kassem and Premier Khrushchev have been talking to hear themselves talk, because Nasser at least seems to be speaking in anger, they undoubtedly have been talking to be heard.

The biggest set of pitcher ears in captivity belongs to the United States, which can be thrown into ecstasies of optimism or the sloughs of despond by the inflection of a single syllable in the mouth of a foreign statesman.

There are times when it appears that Nikita Khrushchev is playing an auditory symphony for the sole benefit of the United States. With a chuckle, a sneer, a threat, or a honeyed word he can make Americans writhe and flutter like an audience of teen-age girls listening to a contemporary banjo-boy.

It would be strange indeed if Gamel Nasser, who is one of the brightest of the world's new crop of political opportunists, had not observed the success of the technique with a view to copying it to his own advantage some day.

It used to be that when the late Joseph Stalin belched in the Kremlin, every American statesman patted his own belly and murmured about the quality of the food. Khrushchev has mastered the art of holding attention too — and Nasser and Kassem and Franco and De Gaulle. They all know how to get what they want from the United States. They talk.

They can talk up a rift in the lute or they can bridge a widening gap with a few trenchant sentences, or a cooing explanation.

Talk is as cheap as ever, but never before has it been used with such telling effect on the sensitivities of a major power. The talkers almost had Americans believing Nasser was mad at Moscow.

Safety Conference

The fifth annual Tri-State Youth Traffic Safety Conference has come and gone.

It attracted more than 130 to Westgate School for a program which laid emphasis on the better side of our young drivers. Nothing but good can result when a group of high school students get together with their elders and talk driving safety.

With the need mounting constantly, safety conferences such as the one held here serve a very definite and useful purpose in a school program.

By sharing their problems and by probing for the answers, the young men and women who will become the adult drivers of tomorrow are laying the proper foundation for the future.

The one big thing that must be remembered, however, is this: Safe driving is not something that must be emphasized only at conferences. It is of year-around concern.

The practical lessons learned at last Friday's discussion must be pursued daily if the safe-driving program is to continue to be the valuable asset it has been to date.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The Soviet reply to the U.S. note citing evidence that Red fishing boats cut Atlantic cable:

"The U.S.S.R. acknowledges your recent note relative to the cable-cutting, finds it provocative and resents the plain words indicating the belief the Soviet Union is anything but a true friend of cables, a champion of ocean-bottom messages and the world's foremost exponent of honest fishing.

"As the whole world knows, the U.S.S.R. invented cables, and put down the first trans-Atlantic one, despite crude claims to the contrary by the capitalistic bloc.

"The Soviet Union interferes with no cables anywhere. It stands for peaceful cables. As is well known, all a Russian fishing fleet does is to go fishing. If any cable is busted where such a fleet is at work, it is the work of capitalistic interests warmongering in the fishing zones. Imperialist circles are out on the high seas cutting cables and scaring fish gathering in great schools to join the Communist Party.

"The U.S.S.R. is informed that President Eisenhower and Premier Macmillan were not in a wooded mountain retreat recently but were on the ocean in a special cable-cutter designed by Wall Street.

Kennedy Woos Wisconsin Vote

By Jay G. Hayden

Wisconsin, which has provided many spectacular presidential primary contests in past years, seems likely to set the stage in that regard a year from this month.

A battle for that state's 24 Democratic convention delegates already is under way between Sens. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota.

At a recent convention of Midwest Democratic workers in Milwaukee, Humphrey was the principal speaker and Kennedy was represented by his brother Robert, chief counsel in the Senate's investigation of labor racketeering.

In the course of that meeting important state leaders of the United Automobile Workers came out for Sen. Humphrey, causing wonderment as to whether Walter Reuther, national president of the UAW, had switched allegiance from Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan to Humphrey.

POSSIBLY with this union factor in mind, Sen. Kennedy made three speeches in Wisconsin last week. He was the headline orator at the Milwaukee Press Club's annual Gridiron Dinner. He spoke at the University of Wisconsin in Madison and at a testimonial dinner in Janesville for Rep. Gerald T. Flynn, who was elected last November as the first Democratic representative from Wisconsin's first congressional district since the Populist uprising in 1892.

Wisconsin's pre-eminence in the 1960 Democratic presidential primary list arises from the disqualification of two earlier birds. In New Hampshire, traditionally the first to vote, Kennedy is conceded to have a walkaway which probable applies equally to the rest of New England. And Minnesota, which voted second in 1956, has abolished its presidential primary, presumably because Sen. Humphrey decided he didn't want to face a possible contest for his home state delegation just when he had Wisconsin on his mind.

Gaylord A. Nelson, the first Democratic governor of Wisconsin since New Deal days, dabbled with the idea of seeking favorite son presidential preference but he ran into double trouble. Sen. William Proxmire, another neophyte, vowed that if Wisconsin had a favorite son it was himself.

THE DEMOCRAT state chairman blunted that local competition by inviting Kennedy, Humphrey, Gov. Robert Meyner of New Jersey and Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri to enter the Wisconsin contest.

Another state where Humphrey and Kennedy may meet in quest for popular votes is Florida, which provides the only Southern presidential primary.

Sen. Kennedy had the support of many Southern delegates as a candidate for the vice presidential nomination in 1956 and he has been courting that section assiduously ever since.

Back in 1948 Sen. Humphrey appeared to have written off the South as a supporter for all time when he led in pushing through the Democratic national convention a civil rights platform plank stiffer than even President Truman wanted. On account of that action, four Southern states bolted the party completely with the effect of turning 39 presidential electors to the States Rights ticket of J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina for president and Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi for vice president. President Truman was re-elected despite that diversion.

Lately, Humphrey has been cuddling up to the South, especially by becoming a faithful follower of Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the Democratic floor leader of the Senate.

HUMPHREY'S current Southern jaunt includes appearance before the Dade County Bar Association at Miami, Fla., the University of Florida at Gainesville and the Hialeah Chamber of Commerce, where he will be principal speaker at a testimonial dinner for Sen. George Smathers (D-Fla).

Next, Humphrey will speak at Oak Ridge, Tenn., site of the nation's biggest atomic installation, with Sen. Albert Gore of that state introducing him.

Later Humphrey is going to Louisiana, with one of his speeches at the state university where he took a masters degree. He is counting heavily on that educational link in his quest for Southern delegates.

Others may enter the Democratic presidential primary contests but at the moment it looks like a Kennedy - Humphrey twosome.

Balanced Budget For '61

By J. F. TerHorst

President Eisenhower already is working toward handing his White House successor a balanced budget for fiscal 1961 of approximately the same size as his 77-billion-dollar spending blueprint for 1960.

Budget Bureau Director Maurice H. Stans has revealed the administration's aim and pooh-poohed congressional tax experts who last week ruled out hopes of balancing the upcoming budget.

If Congress heeds Eisenhower's budget recommendations for 1960, "then in 1961 we could have a level of expenditures which would not have to go above this . . . level," Stans declared.

The 1961 budget will be the last which Eisenhower can present to Congress during his administration.

It would go into effect July 1, 1960 and extend to June 30, 1961, thus overlapping Eisenhower's departure and the first 5½ months of the next president.

STANS FORESEES "two or three billion dollars" of extra revenues for the 1961 budget that could be used for national debt reduction, for increases in certain programs or for a tax cut.

"My own feeling is that if the people had any opportunity to vote specifically on it, they'd ask for tax reduction," the budget chief said.

Stans went out of his way to debunk economists who contend the administration has been overly optimistic in estimating revenues for the 1960 budget year beginning July 1.

Experts for Sen. Harry F. Byrd's Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation last week reported that government receipts will total only $75,800,000,000, about $1,300,000,000 under the President's estimate.

Although the committee's figures have usually proven reliable, Stans said such criticism of the budget "will prove to be very, very poorly founded."

"The levels of corporate profits that we had anticipated for calendar 1959 seem to be well borne out by developments of the last few months," he declared.

"We are on the upgrade in the recovery from the recession and that recovery seems fairly certain to continue in a substantial way."

IF THE COUNTRY hits a 400-billion-dollar gross national product total this year, Stans believes the administration "will exceed the levels of revenue we have in this (1960) budget."

To further justify his estimate, Stans said the 77-billion-dollar revenue total is nine billion above government income for the 1959 budget, identical with the revenue jump experienced after the brief recession of 1954.

Stans called this "a good pattern of experience."

The budget director made his comments in a talk with Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich) that was filmed for use on Michigan television stations.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Temporary quarters for the Central fire department were established in the abandoned Standard Pottery Co.'s building on Broadway, pending erection of a new building.

Joseph Blazer, Frank Gardner and W. J. Pittenger were re-elected trustees of the First Presbyterian Church for a three-year term.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Mayor Lee Copenhaver appointed Mrs. Grace Manning of Waterloo St. city relief investigator to succeed Samuel C. Chertoff.

Chief of Police Hugh J. McDermott issued an appeal to district motorists to drive carefully to prevent injuries to children.

TEN YEARS AGO — Mrs. J. E. Madden of East Palestine, president of the East Liverpool deanery, was elected president of the Columbiana County Council of the National Council of Catholic Women.

Atty. William H. Vodrey Jr. of East Liverpool was elected president of the Columbiana County Bar Association, succeeding Atty. George L. Lafferty of Lisbon.

Frank Chan of East Liverpool High School was named to the All-Eastern Ohio Class A basketball team.

'Explosion'

As a species, man is a latecomer but a phenomenal success.

He has triumphed over all other animals, subdued many of the diseases that attack him, found ingenious ways to wrest his sustenance from the earth's crust—and multiplied.

In a relatively short span of time, man has increased his population to a peak of some 2,790,000,000. In 1959 and 1960, according to a recent estimate, another 100,000,000 human beings will arrive. And therein lies a problem.

"Explosion" is the word used by demographers, or population analysts, to describe the upsurge. It took about 200,000 years for the species to number 2,000,000,000 at mid - 20th century. Now it seems inevitable that the 4,000,000,000-mark will be reached in merely 30 years.

The rampant rise is due not to higher birth rates, but to a fantastic decline in death rates, especially in poor countries already teeming with people. Modern medical science, with its vaccines, inoculations, DDT, and wonder drugs, is helping the rich and poor alike to stave off disease, disability and early death.

If population grows at the present explosive rate, the world will have 6,000,000,000 mouths to feed by A.D. 2,000.

Rockin' The Boat

More Attacks Aimed At Lyndon Johnson

WASHINGTON

At the start it looked like such a comfortable year for Sen. Lyndon Johnson. As leader of the Senate Democrats the tall Texan had everything he could wish for, including peace and quiet.

It was like being the skipper of a ship on a windless sea. Then suddenly out of nowhere the wind came up. It didn't capsize him but it rocked his boat.

Loyalty? He had it. Probably every Democratic senator is beholden to him for some favor or other. He's a great one for doing favors, knowing the importance of having senators feel favorable to him when he wants something done.

Prestige? He had it in abundance. Wasn't everyone saying he was a positively brilliant maestro in a place which has more prima donnas than an opera house? He had a genius for getting them to say yes or no as he wanted.

And best of all for him: he had an overwhelming majority of Democrats to work with. Thanks to last November's elections, his party's majority was the greatest since early New Deal days.

What more could a Senate leader ask? If he were asked, he'd probably have said more of the same, as anyone would. He was even being prominently mentioned as a likely Democratic presidential candidate in 1960.

Then a comparative newcomer, Sen. William Proxmire, Wisconsin Democrat, strode up to the bridge and pulled the skipper's cap down around his ears. This was a few weeks ago.

In brief, this was Proxmire's complaint: Senate Democrats were being treated to too much of the daddy-knows-best stuff, with Lyndon the Daddy. Proxmire wanted less of a one-man show and more say-so from everybody.

He wanted Johnson to hold more pow-wows with other Democrats so they could have a voice in what legislation should be pushed, changed, or shoved aside.

Last week Johnson encountered criticism of his leadership from another Democrat, Sen. Pat McNamara of Michigan. He didn't like the way Johnson acted—failed to act was the way he put it—on the jobless pay bill.

This bill, as approved by Congress, was much less than McNamara wanted. He accused Johnson not only of failing to provide leadership but of failing to take a stand at all.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) came up with still more criticism during the weekend. He didn't mention the 51-year-old Johnson by name, nor did he name Johnson's fellow Texan, 77-year-old Sam Rayburn, speaker of the House. The two Texans have been the undisputed Democratic bosses in the Capitol.

But Morse blasted the "Democratic leadership on Capitol Hill" which he said has been the "Charlie McCarthy in a political ventriloquist act" with President Eisenhower and his administration on the Edgar Bergen end of the act.

"Could it be," asked Morse, "that we are witnessing a tragic political spectacle of both of our political parties in the control of old, tired, sick, reactionary men?"

He said in effect: the Democratic leadership in Congress, instead of leading and pushing through Democratic programs, has been playing footsie with the Eisenhower administration.

On top of all this the 27-man Democratic party advisory council tried to light a fire under Johnson and Rayburn Sunday with an appeal to them to ignore Eisenhower's spending holddown and to start a program to bolster the economy.

Johnson, a man highly sensitive to criticism, was out of town and there was no word from him.

Canada To Disarm?

By Eric Downton

OTTAWA

A strong groundswell of opinion is developing in Ottawa favoring drastic Canadian disarmament. It appears to be quietly increasing among all political parties and all economic classes.

The sentiment is being nourished by realization that the recession is still far from over and by official admissions of the severe limitations of Canadian defense potential.

Government leaders and service chiefs recently have confessed that the country's armaments are obsolete and, by implication, that the maximum defense effort of which Canada is capable offers a measure of security so small as to be almost worthless. Today Canadian safety from aggression depends almost entirely on U.S. strength.

FURTHER, it is conceded that Canada's air and ground contributions to the North Atlantic Treaty forces mean little in terms of military effectiveness. They are there as an expensive gesture of North American unity to defend Western Europe, as a sort of stiff fee for Canadian membership in the influential NATO club.

The growing number of Canadians advocating various degrees of disarmament argue to this effect:

Canada cannot defend itself from Russian attack and must rely on American power to shield the Dominion.

The military and economic reconstruction of Western Europe, particularly Germany, cancels the need for even a token Canadian force on European soil.

The defense against the Communist threat, it is argued, is becoming more dependent on small, highly mobile units which could be contributed to the U.N. in the event of Korea - type "police actions" and spend much more on aid to underdeveloped countries.

Surprisingly, the most forthright pronouncement in favor of large-scale disarmament has come from Canada's leading national magazine, Maclean's, which is second to none in its vigorous assertion of Canadian virility and nationalism.

AFTER EXAMINING the possible courses open to Canada's defense policy Maclean's comes to this conclusion, remarkable because of the publication's wide influence and the conservative business interests it represents:

"Make an open announcement that Canada has discovered itself to be obsolete as a military nation and intends therefore to strive for peace mainly as an economic and political nation. Honor our existing military commitments until they run out but make it clear that our ultimate establishment will consist only of small, modestly armed mobile units available for United Nations police duty. And commit ourselves firmly to spend every last dollar thus pared from our defense budget in aid to less favored countries. . . .

"What country is in a better position to set an example in disarmament than Canada, which after trying to arm for 10 years on the most costly scale in its history is still, for all practical purposes, as defenseless as the Canada of 1913 or the Canada of 1938?"

On Alert For Reds

By J. F. TerHorst

The FBI and the AFL-CIO are making unusual preparations to cope with attempts by Communists to infiltrate and exploit labor's upcoming "unemployment conference" in Washington April 8.

The anti-red measures for handling the big mass meeting include:

1. A careful screening of union delegates and newspapermen to prevent Communists from entering under phony credentials.

2. Assignment of federal counter-espionage agents who have been keeping tabs on Communist party underground activities in the labor field.

In addition, Washington's Metropolitan Police Force will be on hand to prevent the Reds from staging "impromptu" demonstrations at the meeting place—Washington's National Guard Armory or at the White House or on Capitol Hill.

THE CONCERTED efforts are the result of what appears to be a nationwide move by the Communist party to propagandize the meeting as a workers' "revolt" against free enterprise.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover declined comment on the Bureau's interest in the conference.

It was learned unofficially, however, that FBI agents who specialize in tracking Reds already are "on the inside" of reputed party plans to exploit the session.

Special credentials will be required of the estimated 5,300 delegates coming from unions throughout the country.

AFL-CIO headquarters said delegates must not only carry authorization from their local unions but also a paper signed by the president and secretary of the central body in their region or district.

In Detroit, for example, delegates from Walter Reuther's United Auto Workers must be certified by the two top officers of the Wayne County AFL-CIO Council.

In cities where the AFL unions and the CIO affiliates have not formally merged, craft union delegates must be certified individually by their local labor federation. Shop union delegates must bear certification papers from their local CIO council.

When presented for admittance, the papers will be surrendered at the guarded doors and checked against a master list kept by the AFL-CIO.

And No One Cracks A Smile

There's a story about counterfeiters who were so carried away by enthusiasm for their easy way of making money that they turned out a batch of $18 bills. It seemed to be a better idea than fooling with phony $10 bills.

Then the question came up about passing the $18 bills. It was going to be tougher than getting rid of tens. So the counterfeiters figured out that the best place to go was somewhere so far from the main stem that the natives wouldn't know the difference.

Having arrived at the far corner of Hell's Half Acre, they picked a victim and asked him if he could make change for an $18 bill. The local yokel never cracked a smile. He took out a roll and peeled off a $9 and three $3.

No one cracked a smile . . .

These are times when any speechwriter who can turn out a good speech to explain inflation can write his own ticket. The subject is timely.

On April 2, Robert C. Tyson, chairman of U.S. Steel's finance committee, made a good speech about inflation to the New York Chamber of Commerce. Whether he wrote it himself is inconsequential. One passage alone was worth the listening:

"If a group of people gets a billion dollars more they will spend more—no argument. If a group of people gets a billion dollars less they will spend less—again, no argument. There is no way for the steel union group to get an unearned billion dollars more without others undeservedly getting a billion dollars less—except that an additional billion dollars be, in effect, printed up, and this is pure inflation."

It also is pure counterfeiting, if you think of it that way.

The boys turn out a batch of $18 bills, trade them for $9s and $3s and no one cracks a smile. That is what it amounts to when money has no value behind it.

The whole thing is done dead-pan. The rest of us are supposed to go along with the gag by pretending that the $18 bills, the $9 bills and the $3 are orthodox money and to make change for it with honest bills and currency. Meaning, of course, that we are letting the funny-money switchers take it out of our hides.

And no one cracks a smile. . .

A Fact That Is Worth Repeating

Charles E. Spahr, president of the Standard Oil Co. (Ohio), has pointed out a fact about gasoline taxes that is worth repeating whenever and wherever legislators are asked to consider increases in the rate.

"High gasoline taxes made the small foreign car a thing of necessity in Europe," he declared in a statement this week. "Every foreign car purchased in America in place of an American-made car has a depressing effect right here in Ohio."

The moral in this statement cannot be disregarded, whether it is gasoline taxation or some other form of taxation that is being discussed.

Resistance to taxation is one of the basic realities of government. Up to a certain point, taxes will be accepted without a struggle. Beyond that point, the struggle to minimize their effect begins to offset the expectancy of higher yield as rates are boosted.

By the same token, it can be argued with sound logic that the way to increase revenue in some instances is to lower the tax rate. The secret is to decrease tax resistance and thereby to increase revenue.

Those small European cars that have taken America's eye are not small because Europeans preferred small cars. They had to be small to compensate for exorbitant taxes on fuel, accessories and the cars themselves.

Europeans would have preferred to drive larger cars. But only wealthy Europeans could afford to drive larger cars. If the time ever comes when only wealthy Americans can afford large cars, it won't matter any more how many cents a gallon may be added to gas taxes. Most Americans will be riding bicycles.

Talk Is As Cheap As Ever

It now seems probable that when events involving Egypt, Iraq and the Soviet Union have simmered down, the net result as far as the United States is concerned will have added up to nothing.

Though it cannot be said that President Nasser, Premier Kassem and Premier Khrushchev have been talking to hear themselves talk, because Nasser at least seems to be speaking in anger, they undoubtedly have been talking to be heard.

The biggest set of pitcher ears in captivity belongs to the United States, which can be thrown into ecstasies of optimism or the sloughs of despond by the inflection of a single syllable in the mouth of a foreign statesman.

There are times when it appears that Nikita Khrushchev is playing an auditory symphony for the sole benefit of the United States. With a chuckle, a sneer, a threat, or a honeyed word he can make Americans writhe and flutter like an audience of teen-age girls listening to a contemporary banjo-boy.

It would be strange indeed if Gamel Nasser, who is one of the brightest of the world's new crop of political opportunists, had not observed the success of the technique with a view to copying it to his own advantage some day.

It used to be that when the late Joseph Stalin belched in the Kremlin, every American statesman patted his own belly and murmured about the quality of the food. Khrushchev has mastered the art of holding attention too — and Nasser and Kassem and Franco and De Gaulle. They all know how to get what they want from the United States. They talk.

They can talk up a rift in the lute or they can bridge a widening gap with a few trenchant sentences, or a cooing explanation.

Talk is as cheap as ever, but never before has it been used with such telling effect on the sensitivities of a major power. The talkers almost had Americans believing Nasser was mad at Moscow.

Safety Conference

The fifth annual Tri-State Youth Traffic Safety Conference has come and gone.

It attracted more than 130 to Westgate School for a program which laid emphasis on the better side of our young drivers. Nothing but good can result when a group of high school students get together with their elders and talk driving safety.

With the need mounting constantly, safety conferences such as the one held here serve a very definite and useful purpose in a school program.

By sharing their problems and by probing for the answers, the young men and women who will become the adult drivers of tomorrow are laying the proper foundation for the future.

The one big thing that must be remembered, however, is this: Safe driving is not something that must be emphasized only at conferences. It is of year-around concern.

The practical lessons learned at last Friday's discussion must be pursued daily if the safe-driving program is to continue to be the valuable asset it has been to date.

The Soviet reply to the U.S. note citing evidence that Red fishing boats cut Atlantic cable:

"The U.S.S.R. acknowledges your recent note relative to the cable-cutting, finds it provocative and resents the plain words indicating the belief the Soviet Union is anything but a true friend of cables, a champion of ocean-bottom messages and the world's foremost exponent of honest fishing.

"As the whole world knows, the U.S.S.R. invented cables, and put down the first trans-Atlantic one, despite crude claims to the contrary by the capitalistic bloc.

"My own feeling is that if the people had any opportunity to vote specifically on it, they'd ask for tax reduction," the budget chief said.

Stans went out of his way to debunk economists who contend the administration has been overly optimistic in estimating revenues for the 1960 budget year beginning July 1.

Experts for Sen. Harry F. Byrd's Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation last week reported that government receipts will total only $75,800,000,000, about $1,300,000,000 under the President's estimate.

Although the committee's figures have usually proven reliable, Stans said such criticism of the budget "will prove to be very, very poorly founded."

"The levels of corporate profits that we had anticipated for calendar 1959 seem to be well borne out by developments of the last few months," he declared.

"We are on the upgrade in the recovery from the recession and that recovery seems fairly certain to continue in a substantial way."

IF THE COUNTRY hits a 400-billion-dollar gross national product total this year, Stans believes the administration "will exceed the levels of revenue we have in this (1960) budget."

To further justify his estimate, Stans said the 77-billion-dollar revenue total is nine billion above government income for the 1959 budget, identical with the revenue jump experienced after the brief recession of 1954.

Stans called this "a good pattern of experience."

The budget director made his comments in a talk with Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich) that was filmed for use on Michigan television stations.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Temporary quarters for the Central fire department were established in the abandoned Standard Pottery Co.'s building on Broadway, pending erection of a new building.

Joseph Blazer, Frank Gardner and W. J. Pittenger were re-elected trustees of the First Presbyterian Church for a three-year term.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Mayor Lee Copenhaver appointed Mrs. Grace Manning of Waterloo St. city relief investigator to succeed Samuel C. Chertoff.

Chief of Police Hugh J. McDermott issued an appeal to district motorists to drive carefully to prevent injuries to children.

TEN YEARS AGO — Mrs. J. E. Madden of East Palestine, president of the East Liverpool deanery, was elected president of the Columbiana County Council of the National Council of Catholic Women.

Atty. William H. Vodrey Jr. of East Liverpool was elected president of the Columbiana County Bar Association, succeeding Atty. George L. Lafferty of Lisbon.

Frank Chan of East Liverpool High School was named to the All-Eastern Ohio Class A basketball team.

'Explosion'

As a species, man is a latecomer but a phenomenal success.

He has triumphed over all other animals, subdued many of the diseases that attack him, found ingenious ways to wrest his sustenance from the earth's crust—and multiplied.

In a relatively short span of time, man has increased his population to a peak of some 2,790,000,000. In 1959 and 1960, according to a recent estimate, another 100,000,000 human beings will arrive. And therein lies a problem.

"Explosion" is the word used by demographers, or population analysts, to describe the upsurge. It took about 200,000 years for the species to number 2,000,000,000 at mid - 20th century. Now it seems inevitable that the 4,000,000,000-mark will be reached in merely 30 years.

The rampant rise is due not to higher birth rates, but to a fantastic decline in death rates, especially in poor countries already teeming with people. Modern medical science, with its vaccines, inoculations, DDT, and wonder drugs, is helping the rich and poor alike to stave off disease, disability and early death.

If population grows at the present explosive rate, the world will have 6,000,000,000 mouths to feed by A.D. 2,000.

Rockin' The Boat

More Attacks Aimed At Lyndon Johnson

WASHINGTON

At the start it looked like such a comfortable year for Sen. Lyndon Johnson. As leader of the Senate Democrats the tall Texan had everything he could wish for, including peace and quiet.

It was like being the skipper of a ship on a windless sea. Then suddenly out of nowhere the wind came up. It didn't capsize him but it rocked his boat.

Loyalty? He had it. Probably every Democratic senator is beholden to him for some favor or other. He's a great one for doing favors, knowing the importance of having senators feel favorable to him when he wants something done.

Prestige? He had it in abundance. Wasn't everyone saying he was a positively brilliant maestro in a place which has more prima donnas than an opera house? He had a genius for getting them to say yes or no as he wanted.

And best of all for him: he had an overwhelming majority of Democrats to work with. Thanks to last November's elections, his party's majority was the greatest since early New Deal days.

What more could a Senate leader ask? If he were asked, he'd probably have said more of the same, as anyone would. He was even being prominently mentioned as a likely Democratic presidential candidate in 1960.

Then a comparative newcomer, Sen. William Proxmire, Wisconsin Democrat, strode up to the bridge and pulled the skipper's cap down around his ears. This was a few weeks ago.

In brief, this was Proxmire's complaint: Senate Democrats were being treated to too much of the daddy-knows-best stuff, with Lyndon the Daddy. Proxmire wanted less of a one-man show and more say-so from everybody.

He wanted Johnson to hold more pow-wows with other Democrats so they could have a voice in what legislation should be pushed, changed, or shoved aside.

Last week Johnson encountered criticism of his leadership from another Democrat, Sen. Pat McNamara of Michigan. He didn't like the way Johnson acted—failed to act was the way he put it—on the jobless pay bill.

This bill, as approved by Congress, was much less than McNamara wanted. He accused Johnson not only of failing to provide leadership but of failing to take a stand at all.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) came up with still more criticism during the weekend. He didn't mention the 51-year-old Johnson by name, nor did he name Johnson's fellow Texan, 77-year-old Sam Rayburn, speaker of the House. The two Texans have been the undisputed Democratic bosses in the Capitol.

But Morse blasted the "Democratic leadership on Capitol Hill" which he said has been the "Charlie McCarthy in a political ventriloquist act" with President Eisenhower and his administration on the Edgar Bergen end of the act.

"Could it be," asked Morse, "that we are witnessing a tragic political spectacle of both of our political parties in the control of old, tired, sick, reactionary men?"

He said in effect: the Democratic leadership in Congress, instead of leading and pushing through Democratic programs, has been playing footsie with the Eisenhower administration.

On top of all this the 27-man Democratic party advisory council tried to light a fire under Johnson and Rayburn Sunday with an appeal to them to ignore Eisenhower's spending holddown and to start a program to bolster the economy.

Johnson, a man highly sensitive to criticism, was out of town and there was no word from him.

Canada To Disarm?

By Eric Downton

OTTAWA

A strong groundswell of opinion is developing in Ottawa favoring drastic Canadian disarmament. It appears to be quietly increasing among all political parties and all economic classes.

The sentiment is being nourished by realization that the recession is still far from over and by official admissions of the severe limitations of Canadian defense potential.

Government leaders and service chiefs recently have confessed that the country's armaments are obsolete and, by implication, that the maximum defense effort of which Canada is capable offers a measure of security so small as to be almost worthless. Today Canadian safety from aggression depends almost entirely on U.S. strength.

FURTHER, it is conceded that Canada's air and ground contributions to the North Atlantic Treaty forces mean little in terms of military effectiveness. They are there as an expensive gesture of North American unity to defend Western Europe, as a sort of stiff fee for Canadian membership in the influential NATO club.

The growing number of Canadians advocating various degrees of disarmament argue to this effect:

Canada cannot defend itself from Russian attack and must rely on American power to shield the Dominion.

The military and economic reconstruction of Western Europe, particularly Germany, cancels the need for even a token Canadian force on European soil.

The defense against the Communist threat, it is argued, is becoming more dependent on small, highly mobile units which could be contributed to the U.N. in the event of Korea - type "police actions" and spend much more on aid to underdeveloped countries.

Surprisingly, the most forthright pronouncement in favor of large-scale disarmament has come from Canada's leading national magazine, Maclean's, which is second to none in its vigorous assertion of Canadian virility and nationalism.

AFTER EXAMINING the possible courses open to Canada's defense policy Maclean's comes to this conclusion, remarkable because of the publication's wide influence and the conservative business interests it represents:

"Make an open announcement that Canada has discovered itself to be obsolete as a military nation and intends therefore to strive for peace mainly as an economic and political nation. Honor our existing military commitments until they run out but make it clear that our ultimate establishment will consist only of small, modestly armed mobile units available for United Nations police duty. And commit ourselves firmly to spend every last dollar thus pared from our defense budget in aid to less favored countries. . . .

"What country is in a better position to set an example in disarmament than Canada, which after trying to arm for 10 years on the most costly scale in its history is still, for all practical purposes, as defenseless as the Canada of 1913 or the Canada of 1938?"

On Alert For Reds

By J. F. TerHorst

The FBI and the AFL-CIO are making unusual preparations to cope with attempts by Communists to infiltrate and exploit labor's upcoming "unemployment conference" in Washington April 8.

The anti-red measures for handling the big mass meeting include:

1. A careful screening of union delegates and newspapermen to prevent Communists from entering under phony credentials.

2. Assignment of federal counter-espionage agents who have been keeping tabs on Communist party underground activities in the labor field.

In addition, Washington's Metropolitan Police Force will be on hand to prevent the Reds from staging "impromptu" demonstrations at the meeting place—Washington's National Guard Armory or at the White House or on Capitol Hill.

THE CONCERTED efforts are the result of what appears to be a nationwide move by the Communist party to propagandize the meeting as a workers' "revolt" against free enterprise.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover declined comment on the Bureau's interest in the conference.

It was learned unofficially, however, that FBI agents who specialize in tracking Reds already are "on the inside" of reputed party plans to exploit the session.

Special credentials will be required of the estimated 5,300 delegates coming from unions throughout the country.

AFL-CIO headquarters said delegates must not only carry authorization from their local unions but also a paper signed by the president and secretary of the central body in their region or district.

In Detroit, for example, delegates from Walter Reuther's United Auto Workers must be certified by the two top officers of the Wayne County AFL-CIO Council.

In cities where the AFL unions and the CIO affiliates have not formally merged, craft union delegates must be certified individually by their local labor federation. Shop union delegates must bear certification papers from their local CIO council.

When presented for admittance, the papers will be surrendered at the guarded doors and checked against a master list kept by the AFL-CIO.

Workers End 36-Day Strike Against Utility

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Some 1,300 employes of the Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. were back on the job today after accepting a new contract which ended their 36-day strike against the utility.

Members of Locals 1466 and 832, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, voted 695 to 125 Sunday to accept the one-year agreement which calls for a 4.67 per cent average wage increase. Workers will get increases of 9 to 15 cents an hour, depending on their job classifications.

H. V. Potts, vice president of the firm which supplies a 23-county area in central and southern Ohio, joined union leaders in expressing satisfaction at the end of the long labor dispute. "We're glad it's over, we're glad to see the men coming back," he said.

The offer, which negotiators approved Friday night, was the third submitted to a membership vote. The first was rejected. The second was accepted by Local 832 but acceptance was ruled invalid by a union international representative when Local 1466 rejected the contract.

The strike began at Midnight Feb. 28 when the old contract expired.

At that time the company offered a 3½ per cent general increase and the IBEW demanded a 6 per cent over-all increase and an additional 10-cent hourly salary boost for top linemen.

Later, C&COE upped its offer to 4½ per cent and the union lowered its demand to 5 per cent and eventually dropped the lineman clause.

Neither the company nor the union released a full breakdown on figures in the pact, but sources reported an upward adjustment in 10 job classifications. No special adjustments for linemen were granted. Hourly rates for top linemen will go to $3.05.

Library Stocks Fresh Supply Of Hot-Rod, Sports Car Books

Devotees of the sports cars and hot-rods can take heart with better weather just around the corner and Miss Frances Jones, librarian, said the Carnegie Public Library has a fresh supply of books on these subjects.

Paul O'Shea, who took more first - places in competition in racing during 1955 and 1956 than any other driver, has a new manual called "Guide to Competition Driving."

Louis Klemantaski and Michael Frostick have prepared a pictorial review on "The Motor Racing Circuits of Europe." Advice from the experts on gearing, souping, and transmission conversion are provided by Louis Hochman in his "Hot - Rod Handbook."

For oldtimers, Elizabeth Nagle, secretary of the Veterans Car Club of Great Britain, has written "Veterans of the Road." This club was largely responsible for the success of the film "Genevieve." Collectors of American cars will treasure Hank Bowman's "Famous Old Cars."

A quintet of novels with American history background lures the fiction reader this week from his good intentions of starting on gardening or housekeeping chores:

Dale Van Every captures a panorama of Kentucky pioneer life following the Revolution in "The Scarlet Feather;" Janice Holt Giles tells of Gen. Wilkinson's attempt to detach Kentucky from the United States in "Land Beyond the Mountains;" Burke Davis vividly describes the last nine April days of the Confederacy in "To Appomattox," and George Barr recreates the spiritual shocks of Americans in Normandy in World War II — his title being "Epitaph for an Enemy."

Two novels delving into the problems of the smart set are Vina Delmar's "The Breeze from Camelot" and Sue Kaufman's "The Happy Summer Days" The power of love in the everyday world of real people is the theme of Edwa Moser's "The Bell Tower."

Friedrich Duerrenmatt is a Swiss author who has already made his mark in this country with the presentation of his play, "The Visit" on Broadway. His current best seller involves the promise to solve a crime given to the grief - stricken mother of a murdered child. "The Pledge" is characterized by directness, precision and beauty. Two short novels of suspense by an old master is Charlotte Armstrong's "Due," which includes "The Girl With a Secret" and "Incident at a Corner." Susan Morrow's "Murder May Follow" and George Malcom-Smith's "If a Body Meet a Body." provide various excitement.

"Danger! Marines at Work," by Robert G. Fuller, is being compared to "No Time for Sergeants" and "Don't Go Near the Water;" Jean and Walter Kerr's "Goldilocks," a play, satirizes Hollywood: Eric Linklater has a witty chronicle of English family life in "My Father and I," and those who laughed at the movie "The Shaggy Dog," will revel in Douglass Wallop's "What Has Four Wheels and Flies." Here the author contrives a plot with numerous poochees at the wheel which should delight Thurber fans too.

Scientific Use Of 'Hell Fire' On Earth Seen

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

BOSTON (AP)—A scientist today declared we ought to create "hell fires" on earth, just to see what happens.

The hell fires would be laboratory temperatures of 10,000 to 60,000 degrees — 2 to 12 times hotter than those usually produced on earth.

Out of research with them come an entirely new chemistry — perhaps vastly more powerful rocket fuels, strong new materials, strange new chemicals.

A research jump into these "hell fires" was urged by Dr. Aristid V. Grosse, president of the Research Institute of Temple University, at opening sessions of the American Chemical Society's 135th national meeting.

"We simply don't know much about what happens in chemical and physical reactions above about 5,000 degrees," he said. "But temperatures above 10,000 degrees might lead to new fuels, rocket propellents, and materials able to resist tremendous heat."

"Our national security could be involved, if these high temperatures do hold secrets to new fuels and new chemicals.

"The Soviet Union is trying to leapfrog us in the missile race, and probably is working hard on facilities to create ultra-high temperatures."

Really high temperatures can be created by furnaces focusing the sun's ray, by some rocket motors, and by plasma jets, or streams of gases created by electric arcs.

More than 99 per cent of the nation's hard coal is mined in northeastern Pennsylvania.

A pretty girl named Denise Prado, of Brazil, has been named the Pan American Coffee Queen. She was formerly a student at Oklahoma State University.

BOSTON (AP)—A scientist today declared we ought to create "hell fires" on earth, just to see what happens.

The hell fires would be laboratory temperatures of 10,000 to 60,000 degrees — 2 to 12 times hotter than those usually produced on earth.

Out of research with them come an entirely new chemistry — perhaps vastly more powerful rocket fuels, strong new materials, strange new chemicals.

A research jump into these "hell fires" was urged by Dr. Aristid V. Grosse, president of the Research Institute of Temple University, at opening sessions of the American Chemical Society's 135th national meeting.

"We simply don't know much about what happens in chemical and physical reactions above about 5,000 degrees," he said. "But temperatures above 10,000 degrees might lead to new fuels, rocket propellents, and materials able to resist tremendous heat."

"Our national security could be involved, if these high temperatures do hold secrets to new fuels and new chemicals.

"The Soviet Union is trying to leapfrog us in the missile race, and probably is working hard on facilities to create ultra-high temperatures."

Really high temperatures can be created by furnaces focusing the sun's ray, by some rocket mottors, and by plasma jets, or streams of gases created by electric arcs.

3 Lose Lives While Boating

CHARLESTON (AP) — Firemen from small Kanawha County communities along U. S. 60 southeast of Charleston resumed dragging the swift Kanawha River today for the bodies of a young woman and a man drowned in a boating accident.

Three lives were lost Sunday when a drifting outboard motorboat crashed into a moored barge and turned over in the fast moving water. Mrs. Lillian Facemyer, 57, was rescued.

The victims were Mrs. Ida Roupe, 49, and her daughter Eva Mae, about 20, and Dewey Akers, 45. All resided at Riverside, one of a cluster of small communities along the river about 20 miles from Charleston.

The body of Mrs. Roupe was recovered less than a mile down the river from the barge, where it hung up on a bush near the bank.

The heavy current last night forced rescue workers to stop dragging the Kanawha but efforts were renewed at 9:30 a. m. today.

The rescued woman, Mrs. Facemyer, was in no condition to give authorities an account of the mishap. Two men on the barges where the accident happened pulled her from the river.

She was taken to Laird Memorial Hospital at Montgomery and treated for shock.

The outboard motorboat was without power when it struck the moored barge at a coal tipple at Hugheston. The boat stopped for fuel a short distance upriver and the four Riverside people had cast off without getting the motor in operation.

The swift current swept the boat downriver.

Riverside is one of the many communities on the north side of the Kanawha, which runs alongside U. S. 60.

Chief Gives Warning On Posting Of Signs

Police Chief Americo Radeschi today warned persons who post signs on utility poles they are liable to prosecution for violating a city ordinance.

The ordinance, which calls for a fine up to $50, bars any posting and also bans posting on private property without the owner's consent, he said.

Officer Still 'Serious'

LISBON — State Highway Patrolman Richard Delagrange, 22, of Salem remains in "serious" condition at Salem City Hospital, where he was admitted Friday morning after his cruiser skidded into a dump truck on Route 14 near Salem. Delagrange shows some improvement, however, hospital authorities said. The officer suffered a crushed leg, fractured thigh and internal injuries.

During TS&T Exhibit

2,000 View New China

More than 2,000 visited the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. outlet in Chester Sunday as the company's new Taylorton china patterns were placed on display locally for the first time.

"Highly pleased," was the comment on TS & T executives on the attendance during the first day of the exhibit, which will continue through next Sunday.

Mrs. Marjorie McClung, manager of the company's retail outlet, admires one of the patterns just before the doors were thrown open to the public yesterday. John Gilkes, designer of the new line, looks on.

The display is the same as the one at which the ware was introduced to buyers at the Atlantic City trade show in January. The exhibit will be open daily from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. and from 1 to 7 p. m. next Sunday.

Legion Posts Send 6 To Area Session

A Buy American resolution of Post 4 was presented to the resolution committee, but action will not be taken until the Ohio convention in July at Cleveland, Rippeth said.

Post 4 will meet tonight at 8 with Ernest Lowe, commander in charge of the business session.

Initiation of new members will highlight the meeting of Post 374 tonight at 8 at the post home, with Charles Moore, past commander, as installing officer. It will be a joint meeting with the auxiliary.

Lunch will be served by David O'Hanlon, second vice commander, and Cregar.

Talked Out Of Gun

CLEVELAND (AP) — A man with a shotgun trained on two policemen was talked into putting the gun down without a fight by a third patrolman Sunday night. Officers Donald Kuchar and Byrl Holbert answered a complaint that a man with a shotgun was causing a disturbance. When they arrived, Lee Carns, 31, got the drop on them. The incident took place in Carns' estranged wife's apartment. Patrolman Phillip Delaine arrived a short time later and talked Carns into surrendering. Carns was arrested.

Statistics Unit Seeks Revised District Plan

The U. S. Office of Statistical Standards has proposed the six-county Wheeling - Steubenville metropolitan area be divided as part of a revised statistical study plan starting May 1.

The proposal calls for Hancock and Brooke Counties in West Virginia be included with Jefferson County in Ohio for statistical purposes, while Ohio and Marshall Counties in West Virginia would be included with Belmont County in Ohio.

Frank A. Cisar of the agency said letters asking for comments have been sent to mayors and Chambers of Commerce in the areas involved.

2 Motorists Fined

Lone Weekend Mishap Listed By City's Police

Only one minor collision was reported to police over the weekend, but two other motorists reported their autos were damaged — one by a hit-skip motorist and the other by stone-throwing children.

A crash at 1:19 p. m. Sunday at W. 5th St. and West Alley involved a backing car operated by Coriene T. Thornton, 38, of Cleveland and an auto operated by Robert C. Kays, 1002 Washington St., Newell, who was making a turn into the alley.

Melvin Harris, 45, of 1071 Pennsylvania Ave., told police he was making a left turn off the Chester Bridge at 2:30 p. m. yesterday when the windshield of his 1958 hardtop was cracked by a rock thrown by some children.

John J. Lacotta, 2216 Harvey Ave., reported the entire left side of his parked car was damaged by a hit-skip motorist on Harvey Ave. between 1 and 7 a. m. Sunday.

Mobile Robot Is Developed With TV Eyes

CLEVELAND (AP) — Development of a mobile robot with television "eyes" was reported today at the fifth nuclear congress here.

Called the Mobot Mark I by its developer, the Hughes Aircraft Co., the robot looks like a forklift with flexible steel arms and TV cameras.

Dr. John W. Clark, head of Hughes' nuclear electronics department at Culver City, called the Mobot the first of "a new family of remote control handling machines" for use in "hot labs" in nuclear research.

But Clark envisioned a variety of other applications, from work on the ocean floor, where the Mobot would be controlled by a shipboard monitor, to gathering samples on the moon while scientists controlling it relaxed nearby in the relative comfort of a rocket ship.

The one being built now for a purchaser who was not identified would cost about $75,000, Clark said.

One of the stars of the Atomfair, the trade exhibit of the congress, is a nuclear heat conversion generator designed and built for the Atomic Energy Commission by the Martin Co.

The generator, fueled by .38 grams of Polonium-210 and having no moving parts, is hooked to a transmitter which will use the call letters W8NPC during the six-day congress. Sunday W8NPC reached a ham in Albuquerque, N. M.

The four-pound Snap-III generator can deliver about 10,000 watthours over 280 days. It is one of several nuclear heat conversion devices being developed for the AEC in a program aimed at providing power sources for space vehicle and satellite instruments.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

Father Has Vital Role With Infant

There are many kind and wonderful fathers in the United States. Yet, our country hardly has a corner on kindness of fathers with little children in public places. Indeed, I have been impressed with the kindness shown by fathers towards youngsters on the streets in European countries, especially in Scandinavia. Perhaps there are many more fathers in our country who help in the physical care of infants and young children than can be found elsewhere. This growing practice not only affords closer companionship between mother and father but also provides the way for closer father-child companionship, too.

By Garry Meyers

The father who bathes the baby or tot and sees him off to bed, or often looks after him at night, gets to know this growing youngster as a person.

As speech develops in the child, he and father talk to each other. They grow ready to have more conversation and companionship later.

MANY A YOUNG father would help in the infant's care if the mother would let him do so. Often, alas, she is so skillful in the care of the baby that she makes the father feel he can never do as well.

With the tot over two or three, the father often can excel in reading to him, answering his questions, making and doing things with him and setting the stage for him to have fun with other children of his own age.

Dad can help the school child with his lessons. Perhaps he and mother can help the child most by listening appreciatively to the experiences and achievements the child recounts.

How wonderful when both parents enjoy home conversation and fun of all sorts with their growing children.

WHAT A BIG place Dad can have with the teenage son, or daughter, in the family circle if he has, in earlier years, been companionable with the child. They can feel proud of each other and enjoy being in each other's presence.

All these precious relationships tend to keep alive even after the child leaves home for work or college or marriage.

My bulletin, "Enjoying Our Children" and "Fathers are Parents, Too," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY MEYERS

Father Has Vital Role With Infant

There are many kind and wonderful fathers in the United States. Yet, our country hardly has a corner on kindness of fathers with little children in public places. Indeed, I have been impressed with the kindness shown by fathers towards youngsters on the streets in European countries, especially in Scandinavia. Perhaps there are many more fathers in our country who help in the physical care of infants and young children than can be found elsewhere. This growing practice not only affords closer companionship between mother and father but also provides the way for closer father-child companionship, too.

By Garry Meyers

The father who bathes the baby or tot and sees him off to bed, or often looks after him at night, gets to know this growing youngster as a person.

As speech develops in the child, he and father talk to each other. They grow ready to have more conversation and companionship later.

MANY A YOUNG father would help in the infant's care if the mother would let him do so. Often, alas, she is so skillful in the care of the baby that she makes the father feel he can never do as well.

With the tot over two or three, the father often can excel in reading to him, answering his questions, making and doing things with him and setting the stage for him to have fun with other children of his own age.

Dad can help the school child with his lessons. Perhaps he and mother can help the child most by listening appreciatively to the experiences and achievements the child recounts.

How wonderful when both parents enjoy home conversation and fun of all sorts with their growing children.

WHAT A BIG place Dad can have with the teenage son, or daughter, in the family circle if he has, in earlier years, been companionable with the child. They can feel proud of each other and enjoy being in each other's presence.

All these precious relationships tend to keep alive even after the child leaves home for work or college or marriage.

My bulletin, "Enjoying Our Children" and "Fathers are Parents, Too," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Door-To-Door Appeal Due

GOP Maps Drive In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — The debacle in the last election has decided the Republican party in West Virginia to go all-out with door-to-door campaigning to try to make a comeback in 1960.

The plan is to get 15,000 new volunteer workers in the precincts to keep Republicans loyal and eat into the big Democratic majority.

The party's state executive committee put the stress on recruitment Saturday when it held its first meeting since large-scale rejection by the voters last November.

Gov. Underwood told the members of the committee that 100,000 Democrats would have to be won over if there were to be victory in 1960.

He said the party needed to "perform with excellence beyond question" to get such support.

Another suggestion made at the meeting was that the privileged class symbol be gotten rid of and something with more general appeal substituted.

Direction of the ambitious recruitment campaign was turned over to Howard V. Corcoran of Wheeling, vice chairman of the executive committee.

He is to name six congressional district chairman who will be responsible in turn for selection of county chairmen.

The organization program has six more points besides the increase in volunteer workers to five for each precinct:

1.—Establishment of a "To the People Committee" to hold public forums on issues.

2. — An extensive recruitment program among young people, with junior clubs for boys and girls of high school age and other clubs for college students.

3.—Setting up of labor, small business, senior Republican and farmers' committees in every county after the May, 1960 primary.

4.—Naming by every party official of an alternate not older than 30 to go with him to party functions.

5.—Establishment of a state training conference or workshop for party leaders.

6.—Organization of visitation teams in every precinct.

The executive committee turned the financial problems over to banker and former U. S. Sen. John D. Hoblitzell Jr. of Ravenswood. He took over the chairmanship of the finance committee made vacant by the resignation of John L. Thomas of Charleston.

Another position Thomas had held, that of treasurer, was given to Henry P. Butts of Charleston.

Other vacancies in organizational posts were filled.

Mrs. E. K. Stevens of Charleston defeated Mrs. F. Sayre Harman of Bluefield for associate committee chairman to replace Mrs. John A. Jones of Weirton, resigned.

Elected without opposition were Blaine Allen of Moundsville, Mrs. John P. Hallanan of Huntington and B. I. Gentry of Charleston to the executive committee.

Aldous Huxley, novelist author of "Point Counterpoint" and "Brave New World," was born in 1894.

Main Snapped By Earth Shift

A water department crew today was excavating a 10-inch main to repair a leak caused by a new slip on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." at the same spot where the highway has slipped almost annually.

The slip apparently caused a joint to pull apart in the line from the low service reservoir to the East End. Only a few families, if any, will be affected briefly, Donald Duke, assistant water department superintendent, said.

Mayor Fred P. Lawrence said the slip occurred at the same spot where State Highway Department officials and geological experts conducted an inspection a year ago and said the only remedy would be a costly relocation of the road.

The highway and geological experts recommended the city continue to place blacktop above the slip, pointing out they have found no way to stabilize the highway, the mayor said.

Piling can be used for small areas but the slip covers too large an area, they told the city officials.

The only solution would be the same treatment used on the East Liverpool - Wellsville super - road, where the state excavated to bedrock, placed tons of heavy slag for drainage and then completed the fill with dirt, the officials told the city.

Operating 'Home' Bar Costs Man $500 Fine

A Wellsville man, arrested in a raid Sunday by State Liquor agents, was fined a total of $500 for the possession and illegal sale of liquor at a hearing today before Mayor William J. Shoub of Wellsville.

Harry Carter, 1341½ Main St., pleaded guilty to charges of keeping and having liquor for sale without a license and for having a place where liquor was sold without the proper license.

He was fined $200 for selling and $300 for operating the bar, police said.

A raid was made by the agents from the Canton office of the Ohio Liquor Control Board at 12:15 p. m. yesterday. Carter had a bar set up in his home and was selling the liquor by the shot, they said. Officers confiscated a pint of liquor.

Deputies Nab 3 Youths In Probe Of Burglary

LISBON — Three New York youths are being questioned today by sheriff's deputies in connection with a breaking and entering of a Brookside Park service station Sunday morning.

Cigarettes, candy, ice cream and sandwiches were stolen from the Route 7 service station and used car lot of George Gaydos by thieves who removed a pane of glass from a rear window to unlatch it and enter. The trio, found hitchhiking in the area, were taken into custody for questioning.

Deputies also are investigating the entering of Monty's Tavern at Kensington Saturday morning — the fourth time in the last two weeks the tavern has been broken open. Coin - operated machines were forced, deputies said.

33 Leave Bus Safely After Brake Failure

Thirty-three passengers on an Inter-City Transit Co. bus were forced to use the emergency door to get out Saturday afternoon at 1:57 when a line on the air compressor broke as the vehicle was ascending St. Clair Ave., leaving it without brakes and air to operate the front door.

The mishap occurred at Young's Alley. Willis Drummond of Calcutta, the driver, had to halt the bus with the emergency brake. He then jumped out the emergency door and placed a rock under the wheels to keep it from drifting backward.

City firemen were called when grease on the compressor started smoking. There was no blaze. John Young is owner of the bus line.

Firemen quelled a grass fire on the hillside above Fairmont St. Saturday at 1:55 p. m. They said it apparently was started by children playing with matches.

Another grass fire was extinguished Sunday at 3:58 p. m. near Gaston Ave. A booster line was used to put out the fire. Some old railroad ties also were burning, firemen said.

Motorist Fined $200 And Jailed For 3 Days

A Wellsville motorist was fined and jailed for drunken driving at a hearing today before Mayor William J. Shoub of Wellsville.

James Spruse, 1106 White St., was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail after pleading guilty to the charge this morning. Spruse was arrested early Saturday morning on Chester Ave. after his car struck another, police said.

Two other motorists were fined at hearing Saturday on charges filed by the State Highway Patrol.

Harry V. Blosser of 15th St., Wellsville, was fined $20 for making an improper left turn. Rudy Halpate of Walnut St., East Liverpool, was fined $15 and costs for reckless operation. He pleaded not guilty.

Both were arrested on the Wellsville-East Liverpool super-road following accidents.

Theater In Wellsville Plans Closing Tuesday

The Liberty Theater in Wellsville will close Tuesday after having been operated for about a year by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knight of Salineville.

The Knights took over operation of the theater about a year ago after it was closed by Jack Vogel and Paul Vogel, brothers. They said they do not plan to reopen the theater themselves, but will either lease or sell it.

Paul Vogel said it is believed Wellsville is now the largest city in the United States without a movie theater.

The Vogels operate several drive-in theaters and design and build drive-ins for other exhibitors. Currently they are building a new drive-in at Pittsburgh and another at Detroit, remodeling another at Pittsburgh and constructing a concession building for a theater at Baltimore, Md.

The British Isles include England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands.

Auto Registrar Named Ohio Sales Tax Agent

EAST PALESTINE—Don Young has been appointed state sales tax agent for the city and will start duties at his office at 57 E. Martin St. Thursday, according to an appointment by State Treasurer Joseph Ferguson.

The tax books and records at the Union Commercial & Savings Bank, which has held the agency for some 20 years, will be closed and audited Wednesday. Young also is deputy auto registrar and his office is located at the Valley Motors Co.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm writing for the high school student body. We think our principal gave us a raw deal.

Every spring the entire student body elects five boys and five girls to the Honor Court. At the big dance of the year the King and Queen of the school are crowned. They are selected from the original 10. The remaining eight are made members of the Royal Guard.

This year a kid with a ducktail haircut was elected to the Honor Court. This principal ordered him to get a haircut before the big dance if he wanted to run for King. He did not get his hair cut. That night he was eliminated from the contest by the principal.

We think the boy had courage to stand up for his rights. After all, this is a free country and people should be able to do what they want with their own hair.

What should the student body do now? — RUSSIAN - RULED STUDENTS.

Dear Russian-Ruled Students: The student body should be happy to have a principal who ALSO has courage. In my opinion, he has good judgment, too.

The ducktail is more than just a haircut — it's a symbol. The way a man or boy wears his hair reveals a good deal about him. I'm not saying this student is a hood. Maybe he's a perfectly nice kid who is in love with his hair and hates to part with it.

But one thing is certain, no American teen-ager who is even slightly hip would sport a mop of hair plastered down with a half pint of goose grease — and THIS is the ducktail.

You kids are going to hate me but I call 'em as I see 'em. My congratulations to your principal. It takes nerve to do what he did.

The Woman Pays

Dear Ann: Will you please settle a family argument? My husband says a man can collect alimony from his wife. I have never heard of such a thing but he claims he has. Is he out of his mind? Please put this in the paper where he can see it.—WIFE OF A NERT.

-:-

Dear Wife: Your husband may be out of his mind but he is right about this. There are many cases on record of men who have collected alimony. The wife must be proved at fault, however, and the husband must be either ill or unable (for some reason) to continue to live in the manner to which her money had made him accustomed.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Officials Plan Protest On Pollution Of Creek

Jefferson County wildlife officials are seeking to arrange a series of meetings with the Ohio Pollution Control Board in Columbus over the problem arising out of waste materials being dumped into Big Yellow Creek, which winds through Hammondsville.

The stream turned "inky black" late last week from what is believed to be "bug dust" from a coal mine upstream.

Ray Starr of Steubenville, Jefferson County game warden, said he could say only that "Yellow Creek is polluted" and that the meetings may iron out the pollution problem of several years.

Starr added that he could find no dead fish in the stream because it was polluted in 1957 from acid waters from a coal mine. Yellow Creek's headwaters are in the East Springfield area and the stream winds its way nearly across Jefferson County, ending at the Ohio River near Waterford Downs.

SALINEVILLE — Further plans for the annual Salineville High School Alumni Association banquet May 29 were made at a meeting of 10 committee members Sunday at the high school.

Stockholders' Meetings Take Spotlight In April

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Stockholders of the land arise! This is your month to howl, to be wooed, to be fed, to demonstrate how the American corporate system works or should work.

In April, stockholders annual meetings crowd fast on each other's heels. There will be at least 60 on one day — April 28 — and if you have stock in more than one of the companies you'll have to make a choice.

This April looks more festive and less bellicose than some past ones. Fewer proxy fights are in prospect. Rising profits put shareowners in a better mood.

Stockholders grow in number each year — not only in the national total, but on the rolls of most of the largest corporations.

The company with the greatest number of common share owners — American Telephone & Telegraph with 1,619,397 at last count — expects such a turnout April 15 that it's taking over a New York armory accommodating 25,000.

The company expects between 7,500 and 12,500 actually to show up to vote on a 3-for-1 stock split and 10 per cent dividend boost as recommended by the directors. Last year A. T. & T. attendance topped 2,500 with only routine business in sight.

Jersey Standard Oil with about 503,000 owners, and General Electric with 395,000, each have had annual meetings of more than 4,000 in the past to claim previous records.

The New York Stock Exchange's magazine notes today that the oil firm had the greatest rate of gain last year in new shareholders. Second was Bethlehem Steel, which now has 171,000. Third was Columbia Gas with 155,000 now.

On the same day that telephone stockholders trek to the armory there will be 36 other annual meetings to choose among.

Third biggest day is April 21 with 35 meetings, and fourth is April 14 with 29 meetings.

City Moose Lodge Initiates Group At District Ceremony

Twenty-five candidates were initiated into Moose Lodge 122 Sunday at the first district meeting held in the group's new home on E. 3rd St.

The candidates were inducted by the Warren degree team. Also represented were the lodges at Conneaut, Ashtabula, Niles, Youngstown, Lowellville, Salem and East Palestine.

Guest speakers were A. A. Draine of Mansfield, state president, and Harvey Lohr, deputy supreme governor. The Great Scotts Quartet sang several selections. Other entertainment included vocal selections and tap dances by local talent.

Dinner was served to 150 by the women's auxiliary. Eugene Springer is governor of the local lodge and Arnold A. Densmore is secretary.

The project of spraying to control weeds and brush is to be completed not later than Aug. 31, the department said. The project will include Belmont, Carroll, Columbiana, Harrison, Jefferson and Tuscarawas Counties. Bids will be opened April 28.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make a cleaning compound for washing painted walls?

A. Dissolve one ounce of soap flakes in 16 ounces (one pint) of water, and add about three ounces of turpentine. Stir the mixture rapidly and apply with a brush or sponge.

Q. How can I make spiced rhubarb?

A. To make a delicious dish of the common rhubarb, when cooking it add a dash of cinnamon, a clove or two, and the grated peel of one orange. Red cinnamon drops, used instead of cinnamon, give it a beautiful hue.

Q. How can I relieve hiccoughs?

A. To relieve hiccoughs, take a teaspoonful of granulated sugar and vinegar. Repeat, if necessary.

Health Head Cites Dumping Along Roads

LISBON — "This is the time of the year when the 'Litterbugs' come out of hibernation and destroy much of the beauty of our countryside by dumping rubbish and garbage along the county highways," Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner, said today.

Unauthorized dumps are not only unsightly but create a serious health threat by harboring rodents, insects and infection.

The Health Department receives many complaints from the public. Very rarely, however, does the person include the identity or the license number of the car of the dumper.

Although the department investigates complaints, without this information it can do little as witnesses to the actual act of dumping are necessary for legal action, he said.

Since the Health Department is understaffed and does not have the personnel to police these areas, it must depend on the public to supply this information, he added.

The sheriff's office and county authorities are fully co-operative with the Health Department in its efforts to abate this nuisance.

"If the public will co-operate," Dr. Palmer said, "By including names or license numbers that can be used as evidence, great progress can be made in restoring the beauty of our highways and in reducing a serious health hazard."

City Man Fined $225 On 3 Chester Charges

Moore, cited Friday, was fined $100 and costs each for trespassing and indecent exposure and $25 and costs for intoxication. Police said he entered an apartment in the IOOF building at Carolina Ave. and 5th St.

Mayor Ward suspended a 10-day jail sentence on each charge when Moore paid the fines and costs.

Democrats Await Truman Remarks

LOS ANGELES (AP)—After a flying trip to a desert resort, Harry Truman is back in Los Angeles for two talks and a touch of prognostication.

The former president is expected to outline the qualifications he thinks the Democrat's 1960 presidential candidate will have to have to win at a meeting of a Democratic group today.

Truman was flown to Palm Springs and back Sunday in the private airliner of oilman Ed Pauley. He visited the ranch of actor Phil Regan.

Wellsville Eagles Unit To See Film Thursday

Movies of the Eagles Boy's Village in western Ohio will be shown by Harold Snell of Youngstown, past state president, at an open meeting of Wellsville Eagles Aerie 772 and auxiliary Thursday night in the lodge home.

A lecture on the village, similar to Boys' State in Nebraska, will be given by Snell, also past VFW commander. It will be followed by a question and answer period.

A chicken dinner from 5 to 7 p. m., served by auxiliary members, will precede the movies.

Plant Exercises Held

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Charles E. Spahy, president of the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio, spoke today at ground-breaking ceremonies for a multi-million dollar petrochemical plant here. Completion of the Sohio Chemical Co. plant, which will manufacture acrylonitrile, is scheduled for early in 1960.

Grass Fire Quelled

LISBON — Village firemen were called Sunday at 1 p. m. to extinguish a grass fire on the Hugh Ramsey farm off the Lisbon-Millport Rd., southwest of Lisbon in Center Township. No damage was reported.

Prosecution Set To Wind Up Case In Triangle Death

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The prosecution will call three more witnesses today and conclude its case in the first-degree murder trial of Minnie B. (Connie) Nicholas.

An Indianapolis neurosurgeon, Dr. John A. Hetherington, will be one of today's witnesses. The state probably will ask him to tell what could have caused nerve injuries to Mrs. Nicholas' arms.

The 44-year-old double-divorcee is charged with the fatal shooting of her wealthy lover, Forrest Teel, 54. The shooting occurred in Teel's parked car near the apartment of his new girl friend.

The defense contends the shooting was accidental and happened during a struggle. Mrs. Nicholas said a struggle with Teel caused the nerve injuries to her arms.

Other state witnesses scheduled to testify were R. K. Shull, reporter for the Indianapolis Times, and Detective Sgt. Phillip Sandersand.

Stockholders' Meetings Take Spotlight In April

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Stockholders of the land arise! This is your month to howl, to be wooed, to be fed, to demonstrate how the American corporate system works or should work.

In April, stockholders annual meetings crowd fast on each other's heels. There will be at least 60 on one day — April 28 — and if you have stock in more than one of the companies you'll have to make a choice.

This April looks more festive and less bellicose than some past ones. Fewer proxy fights are in prospect. Rising profits put shareowners in a better mood.

Stockholders grow in number each year — not only in the national total, but on the rolls of most of the largest corporations.

The company with the greatest number of common share owners — American Telephone & Telegraph with 1,619,397 at last count — expects such a turnout April 15 that it's taking over a New York armory accommodating 25,000.

The company expects between 7,500 and 12,500 actually to show up to vote on a 3-for-1 stock split and 10 per cent dividend boost as recommended by the directors. Last year A. T. & T. attendance topped 2,500 with only routine business in sight.

Jersey Standard Oil with about 503,000 owners, and General Electric with 395,000, each have had annual meetings of more than 4,000 in the past to claim previous records.

The New York Stock Exchange's magazine notes today that the oil firm had the greatest rate of gain last year in new shareholders. Second was Bethlehem Steel, which now has 171,000. Third was Columbia Gas with 155,000 now.

On the same day that telephone stockholders trek to the armory there will be 36 other annual meetings to choose among.

Third biggest day is April 21 with 35 meetings, and fourth is April 14 with 29 meetings.

City Moose Lodge Initiates Group At District Ceremony

Twenty-five candidates were initiated into Moose Lodge 122 Sunday at the first district meeting held in the group's new home on E. 3rd St.

The candidates were inducted by the Warren degree team. Also represented were the lodges at Conneaut, Ashtabula, Niles, Youngstown, Lowellville, Salem and East Palestine.

Guest speakers were A. A. Draine of Mansfield, state president, and Harvey Lohr, deputy supreme governor. The Great Scotts Quartet sang several selections. Other entertainment included vocal selections and tap dances by local talent.

Dinner was served to 150 by the women's auxiliary. Eugene Springer is governor of the local lodge and Arnold A. Densmore is secretary.

Bids Sought In Weed Treatment Of Roads

The State Highway Department is asking bids for herbicidal spraying of roadways in six counties in District 11.

The project of spraying to control weeds and brush is to be completed not later than Aug. 31, the department said. The project will include Belmont, Carroll, Columbiana, Harrison, Jefferson and Tuscarawas Counties. Bids will be opened April 28.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make a cleaning compound for washing painted walls?

A. Dissolve one ounce of soap flakes in 16 ounces (one pint) of water, and add about three ounces of turpentine. Stir the mixture rapidly and apply with a brush or sponge.

Q. How can I make spiced rhubarb?

A. To make a delicious dish of the common rhubarb, when cooking it add a dash of cinnamon, a clove or two, and the grated peel of one orange. Red cinnamon drops, used instead of cinnamon, give it a beautiful hue.

Q. How can I relieve hiccoughs?

A. To relieve hiccoughs, take a teaspoonful of granulated sugar and vinegar. Repeat, if necessary.

Fingernails grow faster than the toenails.

Health Head Cites Dumping Along Roads

LISBON — "This is the time of the year when the 'Litterbugs' come out of hibernation and destroy much of the beauty of our countryside by dumping rubbish and garbage along the county highways," Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner, said today.

Unauthorized dumps are not only unsightly but create a serious health threat by harboring rodents, insects and infection.

The Health Department receives many complaints from the public. Very rarely, however, does the person include the identity or the license number of the car of the dumper.

Although the department investigates complaints, without this information it can do little as witnesses to the actual act of dumping are necessary for legal action, he said.

Since the Health Department is understaffed and does not have the personnel to police these areas, it must depend on the public to supply this information, he added.

The sheriff's office and county authorities are fully co-operative with the Health Department in its efforts to abate this nuisance.

"If the public will co-operate," Dr. Palmer said, "By including names or license numbers that can be used as evidence, great progress can be made in restoring the beauty of our highways and in reducing a serious health hazard."

City Man Fined $225 On 3 Chester Charges

Charles Walter Moore, 47, of Pleasant Heights was fined a total of $225 and costs by Mayor Burton Ward of Chester Saturday on charges of intoxication, trespassing and indecent exposure.

Moore, cited Friday, was fined $100 and costs each for trespassing and indecent exposure and $25 and costs for intoxication. Police said he entered an apartment in the IOOF building at Carolina Ave. and 5th St.

Mayor Ward suspended a 10-day jail sentence on each charge when Moore paid the fines and costs.

Seaman In Exercises

LISBON — Seaman Ralph L. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. McCaughin, 339 E. Washington St., is participating in "Brigadelex 2-59," an amphibious exercise and assault landing, at Vieques Island, Puerto Rico. He is serving aboard the Spiegel Grove, a dock landing ship.

NEW YORK (AP) — Sherwin Cody, 90, author of "The Art of Writing and Speaking the English Language," died Saturday after a long illness. He was educational director of the Sherwin Cody School of English, which conducted correspondence courses.

Life Given Killer Of Colorado Girl

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — Floyd Robertson smiled when a district court jury convicted him Sunday of first-degree murder and fixed his punishment at life in prison.

Under state law, the 25-year-old father of three children, who admitted killing a pretty secretary, may be eligible for parole in 10 years.

Robertson was accused of abducting, raping and slaying Marjorie Schneider, 18, in a mountain canyon West of here last Sept. 7. He pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity.

In a signed statement he admitted he kidnaped Miss Schneider from her party of three companions in a lovers' lane. He said, "I guess I just couldn't stand to see someone else have a good time."

The jury of nine men and three women deliberated 14 hours before returning the verdict.

Home Finance Plans Will Be Parley Topic

COLUMBUS — What's ahead in home financing will be previewed for home builders and others in the residential mortgage field at a one-day clinic in Columbus April 24, Leonard F. Merrick of Cleveland, president of the Ohio Home Builders Association, announced today.

The clinic is one of a series of Regional Mortgage Clinics being held throughout the nation by home builders' groups in cooperation with the National Association of Home Builders.

Availability of mortgage funds, whether money will become tighter for home builders and the latest FHA, VA and conventional financing requirements will be discussed by experts in financing circles and by government officials.

The all-day meeting will consist of a panel discussion in the forenoon on FHA, VA and conventional financing, a luncheon featuring a speaker prominent in home building and financing and an afternoon "workshop" session to bring out builders' current problems.

Paul Kessler of Celina, regional vice president of the NAHB, will moderate the morning session and Hugh M. Askew of Washington, D. C., director of the NAHB Mortgage Finance Department, will direct the afternoon discussion.

Merrick said that the clinic is a repeat of one sponsored by the OHBA last year, with more than 200 attending.

'Floating Storage' Plan Suggested For Carport

PORTLAND, Ore. — One of the favorite subjects of the architect's pencil is storage for the home: storage cabinets inside the house and clever storage ideas for outside.

In recent years, the carport has come in for a lot of attention as a possible storage shed. In fact, in the case of the basementless home, it usually takes over the care and keeping of steamer trunks, garden supplies and sporting equipment.

Using the carport for these items is entirely logical, for the garden is usually adjacent to the carport and a minimum of steps between it and the wheelbarrow lightens the gardener's chore considerably. And what could be more easy than loading golf clubs or fishing rods directly from a carport cupboard into the car?

Even though cupboards have been built right into the wall connecting house and carport, it's a smart idea to incorporate storage features into at least one of the outer walls. Too much storage space is an impossibility.

For the outer wall, something in the way of decorative designing is needed. One interesting plan calls for floating storage, a cabinet which is suspended between ground and roof so that it appears to be floating unsupported in space.

The design trick is to build it around the supporting posts for the roof section in such a manner that the posts are visible two feet below the cabinet and about two feet above. This gives the illusion that the supporting posts run through the cabinet to the roof without actually having anything to do with its framework.

The design of the floating storage cabinet is unique and guaranteed to add a world of decorative interest to the carport, but care should be taken to relate it to the house design through the type of wood chosen for its exterior.

If, for instance, the house is sided in a knotty grade of western red cedar and finished in driftwood stain, the floating cabinet should match perfectly. Doors can be installed either with interior hinges for an utterly smooth appearance or with visible hinges, and locks of some kind are an absolute must.

Items from the floating cabinet will be much easier to load and unload if the cabinet is compartmentized with separate doors for each section.

Transportation Tie-Up Snags Steel Shipments

CLEVELAND (AP)—Barges destroyed by winter floods, railroad cars on sidings waiting repairs, trucks idled because owners lack funds for maintenance and licensing—these are factors delaying shipments of a record steel production to consumers, "Steel" magazine said today.

"Finished steel is piling up on shipping platforms because traficmen can't get the freight cars, trucks and barges they need," the weekly journal of metalworking said.

The transportation tie-up, along with recovery-boosted consumption, has kept the inventory build-up against a possible strike below the anticipated pace, "Steel" said. Stockpiles which were 13 million tons on Jan. 1 may reach 21 million tons by June 30, the magazine said.

Last month an all-time monthly high production of 11½ million tons of steel resulted in addition of only about 1½ million tons to stockpiles, "Steel" said. The previous monthly record was set in October 1956, and was 11,048,513 tons.

Last week furnaces operated at 94 per cent of capacity, up one point, and turned out a weekly record 2,661,000 net tons for ingots and castings. This was about 30,000 tons more than the record established in the preceding week. Only Birmingham among the 12 production districts is under a 90.5 per cent of capacity rate, and Birmingham is only a point shy of that.

"Steel's" composite price on No. 1 steelmaking scrap dropped $2.33 last week to $37 a ton.

Record Reported By Republic Steel

CLEVELAND (AP) — Republic Steel Corp. produced more steel during March than in any month in company history.

T. F. Patton, president of the nations third largest steel producer, reported Sunday that 1,014,984 tons of ingot steel was produced last month. That's 73,140 tons more than the previous record month, October, 1956.

Mills in Chicago, Cleveland and Canton set plant production records to pace company output, which was close to 100 per cent of capacity, Patton said.

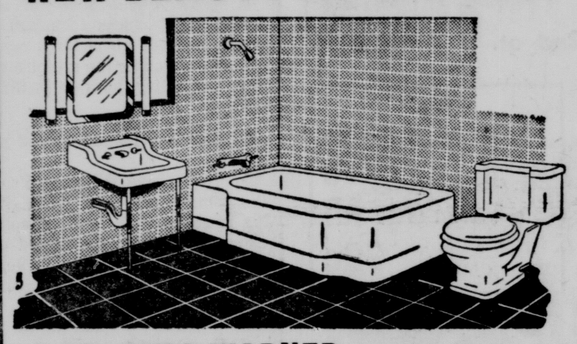

The catapult was the earliest form of artillery used in warfare.

'Floating Storage' Plan Suggested For Carport

PORTLAND, Ore. — One of the favorite subjects of the architect's pencil is storage for the home: storage cabinets inside the house and clever storage ideas for outside.

In recent years, the carport has come in for a lot of attention as a possible storage shed. In fact, in the case of the basementless home, it usually takes over the care and keeping of steamer trunks, garden supplies and sporting equipment.

Using the carport for these items is entirely logical, for the garden is usually adjacent to the carport and a minimum of steps between it and the wheelbarrow lightens the gardener's chore considerably. And what could be more easy than loading golf clubs or fishing rods directly from a carport cupboard into the car?

Even though cupboards have been built right into the wall connecting house and carport, it's a smart idea to incorporate storage features into at least one of the outer walls. Too much storage space is an impossibility.

For the outer wall, something in the way of decorative designing is needed. One interesting plan calls for floating storage, a cabinet which is suspended between ground and roof so that it appears to be floating unsupported in space.

The design trick is to build it around the supporting posts for the roof section in such a manner that the posts are visible two feet below the cabinet and about two feet above. This gives the illusion that the supporting posts run through the cabinet to the roof without actually having anything to do with its framework.

The design of the floating storage cabinet is unique and guaranteed to add a world of decorative interest to the carport, but care should be taken to relate it to the house design through the type of wood chosen for its exterior.

If, for instance, the house is sided in a knotty grade of western red cedar and finished in driftwood stain, the floating cabinet should match perfectly. Doors can be installed either with interior hinges for an utterly smooth appearance or with visible hinges, and locks of some kind are an absolute must.

Items from the floating cabinet will be much easier to load and unload if the cabinet is compartmentized with separate doors for each section.

Transportation Tie-Up Snags Steel Shipments

CLEVELAND (AP)—Barges destroyed by winter floods, railroad cars on sidings waiting repairs, trucks idled because owners lack funds for maintenance and licensing—these are factors delaying shipments of a record steel production to consumers, "Steel" magazine said today.

"Finished steel is piling up on shipping platforms because traffic men can't get the freight cars, trucks and barges they need," the weekly journal of metalworking said.

The transportation tie-up, along with recovery-boosted consumption, has kept the inventory build-up against a possible strike below the anticipated pace, "Steel" said. Stockpiles which were 13 million tons on Jan. 1 may reach 21 million tons by June 30, the magazine said.

Last month an all-time monthly high production of 11½ million tons of steel resulted in addition of only about 1½ million tons to stockpiles, "Steel" said. The previous monthly record was set in October 1956, and was 11,048,513 tons.

Last week furnaces operated at 94 per cent of capacity, up one point, and turned out a weekly record 2,661,000 net tons for ingots and castings. This was about 30,000 tons more than the record established in the preceding week. Only Birmingham among the 12 production districts is under a 90.5 per cent of capacity rate, and Birmingham is only a point shy of that.

"Steel's" composite price on No. 1 steelmaking scrap dropped $2.33 last week to $37 a ton.

Record Reported By Republic Steel

CLEVELAND (AP) — Republic Steel Corp. produced more steel during March than in any month in company history.

T. F. Patton, president of the nations third largest steel producer, reported Sunday that 1,014,984 tons of ingot steel was produced last month. That's 73,140 tons more than the previous record month, October, 1956.

Mills in Chicago, Cleveland and Canton set plant production records to pace company output, which was close to 100 per cent of capacity, Patton said.

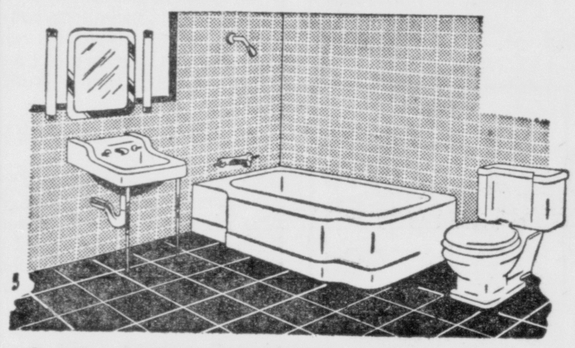

The catapult was the earliest form of artillery used in warfare.

Area Beneath Home Should Be Closed In

There are many houses, porches, additions, which are built separately from the main building and not over the house foundation.

Usually these are built on posts or on cement block or brick piers, and the area beneath them is left open. This is not only a bad condition, but is also a very dangerous one.

To begin with, dried leaves and grass, small twigs and wind-driven paper have a habit of blowing under the structure, accumulating and drying until they form a fine mass of tinder, ready to break into a flame if a spark reaches them. It is almost impossible to reach the fire to put it out unless a hose happens to be right at hand.

Another thing about these open areas is that rats, cats and all manner of small animal are apt to make it a nesting place. The result is frequently odorous and dirty.

When the owner does not want the expense or effort of closing up this type of area solidly, and with proper screened ventilating openings, he will find lattice-work quite satisfactory.

This lattice can be made of wood strip about two inches wide and a quarter-inch thick. It is easy to cut and to nail and the average area can be fitted in a half day. As a rule the posts or piers are located sufficiently close to each other to obviate the necessity of intermediate supports.

In the case where there are masonry piers and not posts, a wood batten can be secured to them with cut nails driven into the mortar joints and then the lattic nailed to the battens.

Outside of the practical use of this protection, there is no doubt but that it improves the appearance of the house tremendously.

Heat–Air Conditioning Unit Will Serve You Year Around

NEW YORK — You can install a year - round gas central heating - air conditioning system, including all the ductwork for a seven - room home, for less than the cost of the average low priced car, the Home Improvement Council says.

Installation and operating costs vary in different parts of the country, but in most locations the cost would be about $2,000.

For detailed information regarding your heating - air conditioning requirements, contact your local gas company. Their experts will be happy to advise you on all phases of house heating with gas.

Gas central air conditioning units now marketed include residential systems of 3½ tons and 5 tons cooling capacity. The equipment for both heating and cooling an entire dwelling is contained in a single cabinet which can be installed in the basement, utility room, or closet.

The 3½-ton model, adequate for a six - or seven - room home of up to 1,800 square feet floor space, occupies about 25-by-64 inches of floor space and is 74 inches high.

A 5-ton model, designed for larger homes of about 10 rooms, or up to 2,800 square feet of floor area, requires 26-by-62 inches of floor space and is about 79 inches high.

The year - round units are going into both new homes and modernized older structures. Prices at the factory have been cut an average of about 25 per cent during the last year.

There are many areas where lower operating costs for the gas air conditioners, minimal service requirements and long equipment life can more than offset any higher initial cost that would be required for separate heating and cooling units.

A rule of thumb followed in some areas in the Midwest and Middle Atlantic States is that gas for air conditioning may come to about half the annual total cost of the fuel required for heating. But here again, conditions vary and consultation with your local gas company is advisible.

In each of these year - round air conditioners the filter and blower of the central unit, plus the ducts and registers of the distribution system, function in both hot and cold weather.

For in - between seasons, a by-pass damper may be employed in ventilating the dwelling with filtered air without either heating or cooling.

The units are water - cooled for hot weather operation. Electricity is used only for the blower, which operates on ordinary house current and does not require special wiring.

There are no moving parts except for the blower apparatus.

Poor Nailing Often Causes Floor Squeak

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY
Written For Bell Syndicate

Squeaking floors, a prime source of annoyance in thousands of new houses, usually can be traced to imporper nailing of the rough or sub-floor of the house.

It is true that the use of unseasoned lumber accounts for some of the trouble, but usually it is because the rough floor was laid with more speed than accuracy. The rough floor nailing should be done so that the nails pass through the floorboards and into the top of the floor joists which support them.

One has only to go into a cellar of a new house and examine the hundreds of nail-points which have missed the joists or floor beams to understand why the floor is going to squeak and creak within a few months.

There is also what is known as inadequate nailing, another cause of the difficulty.

Good building practice calls for two nails through every board and into every floor joist the board crosses. In many houses which have been built recently, you will find one nail where two belong. There is absolutely no excuse for this type of work.

The correct way to lay and nail the sub-floor is to drive the board tightly against the one just nailed and then drive the first nail through the edge away from the nailed board. This is done so that the top of the joist is in plain sight. The second nail is then lined up with the nails in the finished board.

We have seen quick work being done by butting several boards together and then drawing a line across them to guide the nailing.

2 Are Seized At Bay Village

CLEVELAND (AP) — It was quite a Sunday morning in the sedate suburb of Bay Village. Sirens wailed, two shots were fired and police interrupted a church service to search for two escaped reformatory inmates.

One fugitive surrendered to a man raking his lawn. The other was captured by an off-duty policeman, who also was doing some gardening.

"I'm an escaped convict and I want to give up," Gerald Wayne Hotaling, 25, of Mount Pleasant, Mich., told surprised Harry E. Harper, who dropped his rake and called police. Hotaling and Jack William Hamner, 22, of Royal Oak, Mich., broke out of the Ionia, Mich., reformatory Saturday.

A police cruiser spotted the pair in a stolen car Sunday morning. The car went up on a lawn on a sharply curving street and hit a tree. The fugitives fled on foot and the chase was on.

About half of the 10-man Bay Village Police Department, reinforced by help from the Westlake Department, started a search. Mass at St. Raphael's Catholic Church was interrupted briefly while officers checked pews.

Two hours after the search started Hotaling gave himself up to Harper.

"He's a nice boy," Harper commented as police led the 120-pound fugitive off to jail.

Meanwhile, Patrolman Ronald Duperow had heard of the search, but he had Sunday off and was working around the yard.

About noon he saw a man in prison garb walking toward him. Duperow ran to his car, grabbed his service revolver and ordered Hamner to halt. Instead, he took off on a dead run.

Twice the policeman fired, but the fugitive kept running, with Duperow right behind him.

Duperow soon met up with Police Lt. Jay Hubach, whose daughter had reported seeing the fleeing man. The policemen found Hamner cowering in a nearby garage.

Back at the jail a disconsolate Hamner commented:

"I came back looking for Hotaling three times. I should have kept going."

He was unaware, at the time, that his partner had surrendered.

The two, serving 1-to-15-years sentences for breaking and entering and parole violation, stole one car in Ionia and another in Detroit, they said.

Except for some chocolate stolen from a gas station at Erlin, near Fremont, the two had not eaten since their escape.

Their escapade brought them new woes, too. The FBI said a charge of transportating a stolen car across state lines will be presented to the U.S. Attorney's office here today.

Exams For Typists, Stenographers Slated

Because of a continuing demand for stenographers and typists in federal agencies in Washington, the U. S. Civil Service Commission is urging those with the required skills to apply for the positions.

Written tests are held at periodic intervals with applicants eligible to take the test when they are 17. However, those residing outside the Washington metropolitan area will not be certified or appointed until they are 18, the commission said.

Entrance salaries for stenographers are from $3,255 to $3,755 a year and for typists from $3,255 to $3,495.

Contractor Requests New Trial In Forgery

LISBON — A motion for a new trial for Emerson Braun, 27, Salem contractor, was filed late Friday afternoon. Braun was found guilty of forgery Tuesday by a Common Pleas Court jury after he allegedly altered a $10,000 performance bond for a Youngstown project to raise it to $170,000 for a Washingtonville sewage project.

No date was set for hearing the motion.

Judge Joel H. Sharp also sustained a motion for a new trial for Harris Shasteen, 34, of Hanoverton R. D. 1, who was found guilty of non - support by a jury in March. The verdict was set aside yesterday on a deposition taken from Dr. Ralph J. Starbuck of Salem on Thursday.

County Board Will Act On Hillcrest Valuation

A special meeting will be held Tuesday evening by the Columbiana County Board of Education to complete the valuation of the Hillcrest area, which was given to Wellsville School District by the State Board of Education.

Routine business also is scheduled so that the Board will not have to meet on the regular date, April 14, Supt. James L. McBride said.

Sheepmen In Hancock Given Price Reminder

Hancock County wool growers have been reminded that the incentive price for wool during the 1959 marketing year is 62 cents a pound—the same as last year.

The 1959 marketing year began April 1 and continues through March 31, 1960, according to C. C. Herron of Pughtown, chairman of the Hancock County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The payment rate is the percentage necessary to bring the national average farm price of wool up to the incentive level.

As the 1958 wool marketing year ended March 31, farmers have a 30-day period to submit applications for payments to be made in the summer and fall of 1959.

On sales after March 31, 1959, payments will be made in the summer and fall of 1960, Herron pointed out.

Cases Filed In March Exceed Court's Action

LISBON — Columbiana County Common Pleas Court disposed of six less cases during March than were filed, according to a report sent to the administrative assistant to the Supreme Court by the clerk of courts office.

The report shows that 917 cases were pending as of March 1, and 90 were filed during the month, 84 were disposed of, leaving 923 cases pending as of April 1.

Disposition of cases during the month showed 44 tried by court, 9 tried by jury, 12 cognovit and default judgments and 19 settled and dismissed.

Two traffic point system cases were filed with one terminated.

The Court of Appeals gained some ground during the month. Having 10 cases March 1, it disposed of 7, but 4 were filed, leaving 7 as of April 1.

Ferro Shows Earnings Gain

Increased earnings and decreased sales for 1958 were reported today for the Ferro Corp. at Cleveland by Robert A. Weaver, chairman, in the firm's annual report to shareholders.

Consolidated net income was $1,986,416, up 18 per cent from $1,682,677 in 1957, and consolidated sales were $56,377,846, compared with $56,842,848 for the previous year.

Based on 719,962 outstanding shares as of Dec. 31, 1958, earnings were $2.76, compared with $2.34 for 1957 on the same share basis.

Weaver cited "improvements in products, economics in operation and the continued growth of our foreign business" as reasons for the company's improved profit picture.

Commenting on the firm's participation in the plastics industry he said:

"We believe the 1958 results have demonstrated that the planned diversification of markets and products, and the geographical dispersion of our operations give considerable stability to your company.

"In this respect, it is significant to note that although we continue to enjoy a dominant position as a supplier to the porcelain enameling field, it is in the plastics field that we expect the more rapid growth within the next few years. Our sales in that field, which include fiber glass, stabilizers and inorganic colors, have more than tripled in the last five years and by 1965 should triple again."

He predicted that the company's earnings for this year would be appreciably better than last.

The Louthan Manufacturing Co. and the Patterson Foundry & Machine Co. in East End are Ferro subsidiaries.

Bus Passer Fined

NEW CUMBERLAND — John Lee Bird Jr. was fined $25 and costs Friday by Squire John D. Herron on a charge of passing a halted school bus on Swearingen Hill. He was cited by the Weirton barracks of the West Virginia State Police.

Judge Throws 'The Book' At Ohio Couple

WASHINGTON (AP) — You can't—as a general rule — go around the world and deduct the expenses on your tax return if you failed to sell a book about your experiences.

Tax Court Judge William M. Drennen so decided in a case brought by attorney Kerns Wright and his wife, Margaret, of Van Wert, Ohio.

As it was explained in the judge's decision, the Wrights, in 1954, decided to visit their son, who was in the armed forces in Japan, and then continued around the world.

On the trip, the papers said, a travel book was prepared and was entitled "Margaret's Diary." On their return, they could not get the book published, so they deducted $6,497.98 as a loss for travel costs and expenses in preparing the manuscript.

The judge wrote:

"The cost of a trip such as this, undertaken . . . for purely personal reasons, cannot be turned into and deducted as a business expense merely by writing a diary en route with a mere hope (unjustified) that it might be published and bring in some income.

"To allow the deduction of such expenditures . . . would be an invitation to many taxpayers to convert pleasure trips into business trips at the expense of the revenue."

2 Are Seized At Bay Village

CLEVELAND (AP) — It was quite a Sunday morning in the sedate suburb of Bay Village. Sirens wailed, two shots were fired and police interrupted a church service to search for two escaped reformatory inmates.

One fugitive surrendered to a man raking his lawn. The other was captured by an off-duty policeman, who also was doing some gardening.

"I'm an escaped convict and I want to give up," Gerald Wayne Hotaling, 25, of Mount Pleasant, Mich., told surprised Harry E. Harper, who dropped his rake and called police. Hotaling and Jack William Hamner, 22, of Royal Oak, Mich., broke out of the Ionia, Mich., reformatory Saturday.

A police cruiser spotted the pair in a stolen car Sunday morning. The car went up on a lawn on a sharply curving street and hit a tree. The fugitives fled on foot and the chase was on.

About half of the 10-man Bay Village Police Department, reinforced by help from the Westlake Department, started a search. Mass at St. Raphael's Catholic Church was interrupted briefly while officers checked pews.

Two hours after the search started Hotaling gave himself up to Harper.

"He's a nice boy," Harper commented as police led the 120-pound fugitive off to jail.

Meanwhile, Patrolman Ronald Duperow had heard of the search, but he had Sunday off and was working around the yard.

About noon he saw a man in prison garb walking toward him. Duperow ran to his car, grabbed his service revolver and ordered Hamner to halt. Instead, he took off on a dead run.

Twice the policeman fired, but the fugitive kept running, with Duperow right behind him.

Duperow soon met up with Police Lt. Jay Hubach, whose daughter had reported seeing the fleeing man. The policemen found Hamner cowering in a nearby garage.

Back at the jail a disconsolate Hamner commented:

"I came back looking for Hotaling three times. I should have kept going."

He was unaware, at the time, that his partner had surrendered.

The two, serving 1-to-15-years sentences for breaking and entering and parole violation, stole one car in Ionia and another in Detroit, they said.

Except for some chocolate stolen from a gas station at Erlin, near Fremont, the two had not eaten since their escape.

Their escapade brought them new woes, too. The FBI said a charge of transportating a stolen car across state lines will be presented to the U.S. Attorney's office here today.

Exams For Typists, Stenographers Slated

Because of a continuing demand for stenographers and typists in federal agencies in Washington, the U. S. Civil Service Commission is urging those with the required skills to apply for the positions.

Written tests are held at periodic intervals with applicants eligible to take the test when they are 17. However, those residing outside the Washington metropolitan area will not be certified or appointed until they are 18, the commission said.

Entrance salaries for stenographers are from $3,255 to $3,755 a year and for typists from $3,255 to $3,495.

Contractor Requests New Trial In Forgery

LISBON — A motion for a new trial for Emerson Braun, 27, Salem contractor, was filed late Friday afternoon. Braun was found guilty of forgery Tuesday by a Common Pleas Court jury after he allegedly altered a $10,000 performance bond for a Youngstown project to raise it to $170,000 for a Washingtonville sewage project.

No date was set for hearing the motion.

Judge Joel H. Sharp also sustained a motion for a new trial for Harris Shasteen, 34, of Hanoverton R. D. 1, who was found guilty of non - support by a jury in March. The verdict was set aside yesterday on a deposition taken from Dr. Ralph J. Starbuck of Salem on Thursday.

County Board Will Act On Hillcrest Valuation

A special meeting will be held Tuesday evening by the Columbiana County Board of Education to complete the valuation of the Hillcrest area, which was given to Wellsville School District by the State Board of Education.

Routine business also is scheduled so that the Board will not have to meet on the regular date, April 14, Supt. James L. McBride said.

Sheepmen In Hancock Given Price Reminder

Hancock County wool growers have been reminded that the incentive price for wool during the 1959 marketing year is 62 cents a pound—the same as last year.

The 1959 marketing year began April 1 and continues through March 31, 1960, according to C. C. Herron of Pughtown, chairman of the Hancock County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The payment rate is the percentage necessary to bring the national average farm price of wool up to the incentive level.

As the 1958 wool marketing year ended March 31, farmers have a 30-day period to submit applications for payments to be made in the summer and fall of 1959.

On sales after March 31, 1959, payments will be made in the summer and fall of 1960, Herron pointed out.

Cases Filed In March Exceed Court's Action

LISBON — Columbiana County Common Pleas Court disposed of six less cases during March than were filed, according to a report sent to the administrative assistant to the Supreme Court by the clerk of courts office.

The report shows that 917 cases were pending as of March 1, and 90 were filed during the month, 84 were disposed of, leaving 923 cases pending as of April 1.

Disposition of cases during the month showed 44 tried by court, 9 tried by jury, 12 cognovit and default judgments and 19 settled and dismissed.

Two traffic point system cases were filed with one terminated.

The Court of Appeals gained some ground during the month. Having 10 cases March 1, it disposed of 7, but 4 were filed, leaving 7 as of April 1.

Ferro Shows Earnings Gain

Increased earnings and decreased sales for 1958 were reported today for the Ferro Corp. at Cleveland by Robert A. Weaver, chairman, in the firm's annual report to shareholders.

Consolidated net income was $1,986,416, up 18 per cent from $1,682,677 in 1957, and consolidated sales were $56,377,846, compared with $56,842,848 for the previous year.

Based on 719,962 outstanding shares as of Dec. 31, 1958, earnings were $2.76, compared with $2.34 for 1957 on the same share basis.

Weaver cited "improvements in products, economics in operation and the continued growth of our foreign business" as reasons for the company's improved profit picture.

Commenting on the firm's participation in the plastics industry he said:

"We believe the 1958 results have demonstrated that the planned diversification of markets and products, and the geographical dispersion of our operations give considerable stability to your company.

"In this respect, it is significant to note that although we continue to enjoy a dominant position as a supplier to the porcelain enameling field, it is in the plastics field that we expect the more rapid growth within the next few years. Our sales in that field, which include fiber glass, stabilizers and inorganic colors, have more than tripled in the last five years and by 1965 should triple again."

He predicted that the company's earnings for this year would be appreciably better than last.

The Louthan Manufacturing Co. and the Patterson Foundry & Machine Co. in East End are Ferro subsidiaries.

Judge Throws 'The Book' At Ohio Couple

WASHINGTON (AP) — You can't—as a general rule — go around the world and deduct the expenses on your tax return if you failed to sell a book about your experiences.

Tax Court Judge William M. Drennen so decided in a case brought by attorney Kerns Wright and his wife, Margaret, of Van Wert, Ohio.

As it was explained in the judge's decision, the Wrights, in 1954, decided to visit their son, who was in the armed forces in Japan, and then continued around the world.

On the trip, the papers said, a travel book was prepared and was entitled "Margaret's Diary." On their return, they could not get the book published, so they deducted $6,497.98 as a loss for travel costs and expenses in preparing the manuscript.

The judge wrote:

"The cost of a trip such as this, undertaken . . . for purely personal reasons, cannot be turned into and deducted as a business expense merely by writing a diary en route with a mere hope (unjustified) that it might be published and bring in some income.

"To allow the deduction of such expenditures . . . would be an invitation to many taxpayers to convert pleasure trips into business trips at the expense of the revenue."

UAW Had 2 Economic Cutbacks In 1958

Unions Get Hurt In Recession Too

DETROIT (AP)—Unionists who work for unions get hurt in recessions, just as unionists who work for industry do — in the pocketbook.

Take the huge United Auto Workers Union, for example. It has had two of what industry terms economic cut backs in the last year.

The UAW has laid off 175 staff workers paid by international headquarters and its officers and executive board members were asked voluntarily to take a five per cent salary cut. They had given up 10 per cent for 18 weeks last year, but that was restored.

The staff cutback among $8,000-and-down employes amounts to roughly 20 per cent of the international's work force. Officer salaries are scaled downward from President Walter P. Reuther's $22,000 to $12,500 for executive board members.

The UAW had an average monthly dues-paying membership of 1,026,050 in 1958, down 289,411 from the 1957 average of 1,315,461. Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey reported the UAW operated $2,373,298 in the red in 1958.

The dues-paying drop amounts to $434,116 a month at the international level. The international gets $1.50 of the union's basic minimum dues of $3 a month. However, 40 cents is earmarked for specific uses such as strike benefits.

Using the 1958 dues-paying membership average, the international's income was $1,539,073 a month or $18,468,876 for the year, including earmarked funds.

Staffers laid off by the UAW could collect severance pay, amount depending upon length of service. Employes contribute 5 per cent and the union 11 per cent to a pension-severance fund. If laid off, employes can draw down their own, plus the union's contribution, or leave it for a pension to be claimed at 65.

The UAW doesn't represent just auto workers. Its full title is: International Union, United Automobile, Aircraft and Agricultural Implement Workers of America.

And 1958 was a rough year for all but the agricultural implement industry. There were strikes and heavy layoffs in autos and airplanes, and some strikes in farm equipment. These cut two ways into UAW receipts. Strikers pay no dues and siphon strike-support funds. Those laid off pay no dues. A rule is you must work 40 hours a month to be liable for dues.

The UAW strike fund paid out 22 million dollars in 1958 to strikers in 279 plants. A $1 a month assessment was levied on all workers this year to build the fund back from 19 million to 25 million dollars.

But strikes and layoffs didn't cause all the UAW's dues-paying headaches. It developed what appears to be a chronic one in its automobile division several years back.

In the auto industry's biggest year, 1955, when it built more than nine million cars and trucks, total production-worker employment of assembly and supplier plants was figured at 746,400 by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Production has fluctuated since, but there has been a production-worker decline every year: to 648,-500 in 1956, to 630,100 in 1957 and down to a preliminary estimate of 476,700 in 1958.

Many factors have been blamed or credited for the steady decline of jobs in auto-making. But one stands out. This is automation.

Among other factors has been a trend within the auto industry to decentralize or, as some put it, follow with more efficient plants the market as it develops with mushrooming population growths.

PTA Will Provide Speakers To Air Betterment Plan

The Hancock County Council of Parent - Teacher Associations has organized a "Speakers' Bureau" for the purpose of providing an explanation of recommendations made by Supt. Robert H. Hall for bettering the school system.

Mrs. Matthew Javersak, president, said "the recommended program is not complicated, but requires much explanation." She added that "the speakers' Bureau has been organized to explain the program in detail to interested organizations and groups — no matter how small."

Supt. Hall's seven - point improvement plan includes 10 months of school to provide a full 180 days of classroom instruction, a stronger physical fitness program for students, and remedial reading program in all grades.

Groups interested in obtaining a speaker may contact Mrs. Javersak at Weirton 3374-R, or Supt. Hall, Joseph Endry, president of the County Education Association; Robert Lindsey, assistant county superintendent; Harold Proudfoot, Council chairman for juvenile protection; Mrs. Audrey Litman, elementary school supervisor, or Mrs. William Shaw, president of the County Classroom Teachers Association.

UAW Had 2 Economic Cutbacks In 1958

Unions Get Hurt In Recession Too

DETROIT (AP)—Unionists who work for unions get hurt in recessions, just as unionists who work for industry do — in the pocketbook.

Take the huge United Auto Workers Union, for example. It has had two of what industry terms economic cut backs in the last year.

The UAW has laid off 175 staff workers paid by international headquarters and its officers and executive board members were asked voluntarily to take a five per cent salary cut. They had given up 10 per cent for 18 weeks last year, but that was restored.

The staff cutback among $8,000-and-down employes amounts to roughly 20 per cent of the international's work force. Officer salaries are scaled downward from President Walter P. Reuther's $22,000 to $12,500 for executive board members.

The UAW had an average monthly dues-paying membership of 1,026,050 in 1958, down 289,411 from the 1957 average of 1,315,461. Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey reported the UAW operated $2,373,298 in the red in 1958.

The dues-paying drop amounts to $434,116 a month at the international level. The international gets $1.50 of the union's basic minimum dues of $3 a month. However, 40 cents is earmarked for specific uses such as strike benefits.

Using the 1958 dues-paying membership average, the international's income was $1,539,073 a month or $18,468,876 for the year, including earmarked funds.

Staffers laid off by the UAW could collect severance pay, amount depending upon length of service. Employes contribute 5 per cent and the union 11 per cent to a pension-severance fund. If laid off, employes can draw down their own, plus the union's contribution, or leave it for a pension to be claimed at 65.

The UAW doesn't represent just auto workers. Its full title is: International Union, United Automobile, Aircraft and Agricultural Implement Workers of America.

And 1958 was a rough year for all but the agricultural implement industry. There were strikes and heavy layoffs in autos and airplanes, and some strikes in farm equipment. These cut two ways into UAW receipts. Strikers pay no dues and siphon strike-support funds. Those laid off pay no dues. A rule is you must work 40 hours a month to be liable for dues.

The UAW strike fund paid out 22 million dollars in 1958 to strikers in 279 plants. A $1 a month assessment was levied on all workers this year to build the fund back from 19 million to 25 million dollars.

But strikes and layoffs didn't cause all the UAW's dues-paying headaches. It developed what appears to be a chronic one in its automobile division several years back.

In the auto industry's biggest year, 1955, when it built more than nine million cars and trucks, total production-worker employment of assembly and supplier plants was figured at 746,400 by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Production has fluctuated since, but there has been a production-worker decline every year: to 648,500 in 1956, to 630,100 in 1957 and down to a preliminary estimate of 476,700 in 1958.

Many factors have been blamed or credited for the steady decline of jobs in auto-making. But one stands out. This is automation.

Among other factors has been a trend within the auto industry to decentralize or, as some put it, follow with more efficient plants the market as it develops with mushrooming population growths.

8 Crack Teams Await Tri-State Tourney Action Thursday

Gengarellas Win First Start, 81-50

Eight crack teams are marking time until Thursday night when the 34th annual Tri-State tournament will resume at Memorial Auditorium.

Four more squads advanced after action Saturday night which found St. Paul Sports of Cleveland defeating Bloors Pharmacy, 59-50, Gengarellas handing Shelley Speed Queen of Canton an 81-50 setback and Lee Stockton Collegians eliminating Chuck Kennedy's, 83-77.

Scafide's won by a forfeit when the Wig Wam Restaurant five of London, Ohio, failed to appear.

Twelve teams were eliminated during three days of action last week. Four games will be played Thursday night, with the semi-finals and finals scheduled for Friday.

The schedule Thursday night shows Midland USW meeting St. Paul Sports, Freed's and Pete's facing Alex's Carry-Out—American Billiards, Gengarellas going against Scafide's and Joe's All-Stars playing Lee Stockton Collegians.

Gengarella's opened defense of its Tri-State crown Saturday, a title which the Midland entry has claimed for the past two tournaments. From all indications Gengarellas is going all out to claim its third straight and set a tournament record.

Gengarellas showed an all-star outfit Saturday night, with Duquesne, St. Francis and Youngstown University stars in the lineup.

Bernie Matthews of Duquesne fame was the big gun with 21 points. Four others finished in the double figures for Gengarellas, with Beanie Gordon, a favorite here for the last three years, tallying 13. Herb Lake scored 12 and Jack O'Malley and Don Falenski of St. Francis each added 12.

Another outstanding performer for the defending champs was Red Ryan of Duquesne, who contributed eight points.

Burns and Early topped the Shelley Speed Queen entry with 13 points each.

The home town favorite, Chuck Kennedy's fell by the wayside when Lee Stockton Collegians of Canton pulled away in the second half after owning a slim 43-42 edge at halftime.

Paul James, the former East Liverpool cage star, performed for the Stockton five and tallied 16 points. The big scorer for the Canton entry was Teel with 24 markers.

Al Dawson paced Kennedy's again with 19 points, while Jim Cerasi of Midland had 17 and George Hale 14.

St. Paul Sports of Cleveland, with former East Tech stars in the lineup, had to go all out to eliminate another local entry—Bloor's Pharmacy.

Ted Robinson of Chester, who scored 38 points Friday night, left the fans buzzing again Saturday with his outstanding work. He scored 22 points in a losing cause.

It left him with 60 points for two games and stamped him as high point man so far in the tourney.

Hall topped the St. Paul five with 14 points, while Carroll added 13 to the balanced scoring attack.

Spahn Blanks Detroit

Friend Cuts Down Phils; Reds Edge Yankees, 7-6

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Anderson, a towering 23-year-old right-hander who was something less than sensational last year, has developed into the key man in the Chicago Cubs' pitching staff — so much so that Manager Bob Scheffing today decided to give him the opening day starting assignment.

At such an age, the supposition would be that Anderson is pretty much of a novice in the pitching trade.

Guess again.

He has toiled for no fewer than five minor league clubs and now is going into his fourth hitch with the Cubs.

Anderson, all 6-4 of him, spent most of last season with Fort Worth in the Texas League where he compiled a 17-9 record. He hung on with the Cubs for a while and posted a 3-3 mark and a 3.95 ERA.

But Sunday, he capped a fine exhibition campaign, holding the Boston Red Sox to three singles during a seven-inning stint in Fort Worth. The Cubs won the ball game, 5-0, and Anderson got Friday's starting assignment against Los Angeles.

During the spring, Anderson pitched 38 innings and allowed 12 earned runs.

Three top veterans oiled their arms for their opening day appearances.

Warren Spahn shut out the Detroit Tigers, 5-0, on sx hits for the Milwaukee Braves in Bradentown; Billy Pierce whitewashed the Washington Senators, 3-0, for the Chicago White Sox in Charleston, S.C., and Bob Friend, ace of the Pittsburgh Pirates' staff, cut down the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-1, in Fort Myers, Fla.

Elsewhere, the San Francisco Giants edged the Cleveland Indians, 7-6, in Denver; the Los Angeles Dodgers downed the Kansas City A's, 3-1, in West Palm Beach; the Cincinnati Reds outlasted the New York Yankees in 10 innings, 7-6, in Tampa, and the Baltimore Orioles turned back the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-4, in Miami.

If his Braves' teammates are overconfident, Spahn certainly is not. It marked the veteran left-hander's second shutout in three starts. The Tigers collected six hits and just two of them got as far as third base.

For Pierce, the triumph was his first nine-inning job of the spring. But in this case the silver lining had a dark cloud. The Sox collected just six singles. They've been having trouble all spring getting anything more than a single.

Friend outpitched another veteran, Robin Roberts. The Pirate righty gave up only six hits. Roberts was touched for 13, including homers by Bill Virdon and Dick Stuart.

Pitching Seen Bright Spot

Chester Will Open 1959 Baseball Season Tuesday

Bolstered by three veteran hurlers and four other returning lettermen, the Cester baseball squad will receive its first test in the 1959 opener at home Tuesday against Beaver Local.

Coach Dom Amedeo has three top pitchers back in righthander Don Shaw, a three-year veteran, senior Dave Brookes a southpaw, and Gary Pugh.

Shaw was the workhorse of the Panther staff last season and will be counted on heavily again.

Other lettermen returning this spring are John Steele, who will go behind the plate, and Kenny Sayres will catch or be used in the outfield.

Amedeo will have Bob McMahon back at second base and Bill Mayhew will find a spot somewhere in the infield.

Other prospects include outfielders Dave Lyons, Frank Kenny, Bill Myers and Jim Kirby and infielder Gary Daugherty. Bil Mackall can be used in the outfield or behind the plate.

Amedeo said 15 freshmen reported this year.

The Panthers will play a 16-game schedule, eight at home. Chester will play its home games at City Park.

The schedule follows:

April 7—Beaver Local, home
April 8—Madonna, away
April 9—East Liverpool, home
April 13—Weirton, away
April 15—Steubenville, away
April 17—South Side, home
April 20—Newell, away
April 22—East Liverpool, away
April 23 —New Cumberland, home
April 27—Weirton, home
April 29—South Side, away
April 30—Steubenville, home
May 4—Newell, home
May 5—Beaver Local, away
May 8—New Cumberland, away
May 13—Madonna, home

South Side Trips Beaver Local, 8-5

Beaver Local dropped its first start of the 1959 baseball season when South Side came out on top with an 8-5 victory at Hookstown.

The winners broke a 4-4 tie with a lone run in the fifth inning then blasted the game wide open with a three-run outburst in the sixth.

Dick Barnhart led the Beavers at the plate with three hits in four trips.

Potter-Midland Game Set Today At 4:15

The East Liverpool - Midland baseball game postponed Friday will be played today at 4:15 at Patterson Field. It will serve as the opener for the Potters.

Leek To Start At Third And Strickland At Short

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians will open the season with George Strickland at shortstop and rookie Gene Leek at third, Manager Joe Gordon says.

Gordon said the opening day lineup, in batting order, probably will be Jim Piersall, centerfield; Vic Power, first base; Minnie Minoso, left field; Rocky Colavito, right field; Russ Nixon, catcher, Billy Martin, second base, followed by Strickland, Leek and Pitcher Gary Bell.

The sudden switch at shortstop from Woodie Held to Strickland came when Held developed a sore shoulder, Gordon said.

Leek, a bonus player signed off the University of Arizona campus, has had no minor league experience. Gordon said Leek is a smoother fielder than Randy Jackson, veteran third baseman who might hit more than the rookie.

"Frank Lane (Indian general manager) and I talked it over and we agreed that it might be better to go for defense at third base," Gordon said.

With the opening day lineup almost set, the Indians Sunday sent pitcher Jake Striker, a 25-year-old Bucyrus, Ohio southpaw, to San Diego in the Pacific Coast League. One player still must be pared from the roster to get down to the 30-player limit by the opener.

The Indians, traveling east and playing the San Francisco Giants a series of exhibition games, dropped two contests over the weekend.

The Giants bombed five Cleveland hurlers for a 17-4 victory in Salt Lake City Saturday and rapped out 10 hits and one home run for a 7-6 victory in Denver Sunday.

Collegiate All-Stars Place Seven On U.S. Cage Team

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The College All-Stars, surprise winners of the Pan-American basketball trials placed seven men on the U.S. team for the Pan-Am games at Chicago in August.

Another seven were chosen from the other three teams in the round-robin event which ended Saturday night. Six alternates also were named.

The collegians, who had only three days of practice before the round-robin event which ended Saturday night. Six alternates also were named.

The collegians, who had only three days of practice before the start of the tournament Thursday, were given only an outside chance. Wichita was the favorite on the basis of its National AAU championship.

But the All - Stars breezed through with a 3-0 record. The Bartlesville Oilers were second with 2-1, Wichita was third with 1-2 and the Armed Forces wound up last with 0-3.

The seven All-Stars chosen were Jerry West, West Virginia; Oscar Robertson, Cincinnati; Bob Boozer Kansas State; Johnny Green, Michigan State; Don Goldstein, Louisville; Leo Byrd, Marshall, and Walt Torrence, UCLA.

Joe's defeated Hays' Service of Summittville, 103-100. Hays' showed former college stars in John Riser, Bob Bingham, and Jim Tucker.

Auditing Error Puts Team In 8th At ABC

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Bowlers didn't make a dent in the top 10 standings of any division in the American Bowling Congress Tournament Sunday. But the ABC Auditing Department did.

The department announced Keith's Mens Wear team of Paola, Kan., which rolled Feb. 21, had a total of 2737 pins instead of 2727 as originally reported. The additional 10 pins vaulted the team from 10th to 8th place in the Booster Division.

Miami Lanes of Troy, Ohio, leads the Booster Division with 2848.

Archie Moore To Seek License As Promoter

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore says he wants to become a boxing promoter.

He plans to ask the California Boxing Commission for a license next Saturday.

"There may be promoters with more financial backing than I have, but few with the reputation to match mine in boxing," Moore said.

Zack Taylor, former manager of the St. Louis Browns, is scouting for the Chicago White Sox. So is former slugger Ron Northey.

Morrow Nips Murchison By Inches For Third Time

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Little Ira Murchison agrees that what he needs most is to add two inches to his chest expansion. Then, he might beat Bobby Morrow, the Olympic sprint champion.

Three times Murchison has lost to Morrow by inches. Last week in the special 100-meter race of the Texas Relays it was only because Morrow stuck his chest out farther at the tape after catching the little man from Chicago in the last five yards.

For the record, Murchison is 5 feet 4 and weighs 135 pounds. Morrow is 6-1 and weighs 180.

Murchison also recalled the NCAA 100-yard dash of 1957 when he was so close to Morrow that both were timed at 9.3, equaling the world's record.

"And that 100-yard dash in the National AAU last year was almost as close," said Murchison. Morrow won in 9.4 with Ira inches behind.

The Morrow-Murchison duel was a highlight of the Texas Relays last weekend as the two speed kings ran the 100 meters in 10.2.

The outstanding mark, however, was a javelin throw of 270 feet 1½ inches by big Bill Alley of Kansas which smashed the American and national collegiate records.

Another outstanding performance was a mile relay in 3:10.3 by Texas. The Longhorns' anchor man, Eddie Southern, turned in a 45.7 quarter-mile on his lap, equalling the world record.

Aubrey Lewis Accepts High School Grid Job

PATERSON, N.J. (AP)—Aubrey Lewis, former Notre Dame track and football star, has forsaken professional football for a high school coaching job here, he said today.

Tie-Breaking Game Set In Hockey Loop

BOSTON (AP) —Boston and Toronto girded their battered forces today for 60 minutes of all-out combat which will decide Montreal's opponent for the Stanley Cup hockey championship series.

With their best-of-seven series competition tied 3-3, the Bruins and Maple Leafs must settle the question on Boston Garden ice Tuesday night.

Montreal, seeking an unprecedented fourth straight Stanley Cup triumph, eliminated Chicago in six contests. The Canadiens defeated Chicago 5-4 Saturday.

"I don't think the Toronto club will catch us as they did last time here," said Boston Coach Milt Schmidt referring to the Leafs' convincing 4-1 triumph here Thursday.

That one gave Toronto a 3-2 edge and forced the Bruins to make a last-ditch stand for a 5-4 triumph in the Canadian city Saturday.

"The Ukes came out of their slump and that could be a very good sign," Schmidt added. The Ukes are the Bruins' top scoring forward line of center Bronco Horvath and wingers Vic Stasiuk and Johnny Bucyk.

Bucyk scored twice and Horvath added the deciding tally Saturday.

Ramsey Sparkles Again In Celtics' Second Win

BOSTON (AP) —Point-a-minute Frank Ramsey is the inspired Boston substitute who once almost was traded to Minneapolis. The Lakers would willingly buy Ramsey just to get him out of their hair today.

As the Celtics "sixth man," Ramsey is the main reason Boston leads Minneapolis 2-0 in the National Basketball Assn.'s championship playoffs.

Action resumes Tuesday night at St. Paul and at Minneapolis Thursday.

The Celtics took charge early in Sunday's 128-108 decision over the Lakers but, as usual, it took Ramsey to light the fuse.

The former University of Kentucky star made his first appearance at 8:51 of the first period with Boston leading 19-16. From then until the period ended, the Celts outscored the visitors 13-1.

By halftime, Boston led 72-48 on a 40 points second quarter. Ramsey got 10 of them.

Playing 50 minutes in 2 playoff tests against the Lakers, Ramsey has accounted for 49 points — 20 of them Sunday. Including the seven game Syracuse series. Ramsey has a 215 total for a 23.9 average.

"He's fantastic," remarked Celtics' playmaker - magician Bob Cousy. "I guess he must need the money real bad. I never saw a man have a streak of top play like that in playoffs."

Back in 1955 when Boston was looking everywhere for a rebounder, the team made a bid to get Vern Mikkelsen from the Lakers in exchange for Ramsey and Lou Tsioropoulos both of whom were in the service. At the last minute. Minneapolis decided against waiting for the discharge of the Kentucky aces and backed down.

8 Crack Teams Await Tri-State Tourney Action Thursday

Gengarellas Win First Start, 81-50

Eight crack teams are marking time until Thursday night when the 34th annual Tri-State tournament will resume at Memorial Auditorium.

Four more squads advanced after action Saturday night which found St. Paul Sports of Cleveland defeating Bloors Pharmacy, 59-50, Gengarellas handing Shelley Speed Queen of Canton an 81-50 setback and Lee Stockton Collegians eliminating Chuck Kennedy's, 83-77.

Scafide's won by a forfeit when the Wig Wam Restaurant five of London, Ohio, failed to appear.

Twelve teams were eliminated during three days of action last week. Four games will be played Thursday night, with the semi-finals and finals scheduled for Friday.

The schedule Thursday night shows Midland USW meeting St. Paul Sports, Freed's and Pete's facing Alex's Carry-Out—American Billiards, Gengarellas going against Scafide's and Joe's All-Stars playing Lee Stockton Collegians.

Gengarella's opened defense of its Tri-State crown Saturday, a title which the Midland entry has claimed for the past two tournaments. From all indications Gengarellas is going all out to claim its third straight and set a tournament record.

Gengarellas showed an all-star outfit Saturday night, with Duquesne, St. Francis and Youngstown University stars in the lineup.

Bernie Matthews of Duquesne fame was the big gun with 21 points. Four others finished in the double figures for Gengarellas, with Beanie Gordon, a favorite here for the last three years, tallying 13. Herb Lake scored 12 and Jack O'Malley and Don Falenski of St. Francis each added 12.

Another outstanding performer for the defending champs was Red Ryan of Duquesne, who contributed eight points.

Burns and Early topped the Shelley Speed Queen entry with 13 points each.

The home town favorite, Chuck Kennedy's fell by the wayside when Lee Stockton Collegians of Canton pulled away in the second half after owning a slim 43-42 edge at halftime.

Paul James, the former East Liverpool cage star, performed for the Stockton five and tallied 16 points. The big scorer for the Canton entry was Teel with 24 markers.

Al Dawson paced Kennedy's again with 19 points, while Jim Cerasi of Midland had 17 and George Hale 14.

St. Paul Sports of Cleveland, with former East Tech stars in the lineup, had to go all out to eliminate another local entry—Bloor's Pharmacy.

It left him with 60 points for two games and stamped him as high point man so far in the tourney.

Hall topped the St. Paul five with 14 points, while Carroll added 13 to the balanced scoring attack.

Spahn Blanks Detroit

Friend Cuts Down Phils; Reds Edge Yankees, 7-6

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Anderson, a towering 23-year-old right-hander who was something less than sensational last year, has developed into the key man in the Chicago Cubs' pitching staff — so much so that Manager Bob Scheffing today decided to give him the opening day starting assignment.

At such an age, the supposition would be that Anderson is pretty much of a novice in the pitching trade.

Guess again.

He has toiled for no fewer than five minor league clubs and now is going into his fourth hitch with the Cubs.

Anderson, all 6-4 of him, spent most of last season with Fort Worth in the Texas League where he compiled a 17-9 record. He hung on with the Cubs for a while and posted a 3-3 mark and a 3.95 ERA.

But Sunday, he capped a fine exhibition campaign, holding the Boston Red Sox to three singles during a seven-inning stint in Fort Worth. The Cubs won the ball game, 5-0, and Anderson got Friday's starting assignment against Los Angeles.

During the spring, Anderson pitched 38 innings and allowed 12 earned runs.

Three top veterans oiled their arms for their opening day appearances.

Warren Spahn shut out the Detroit Tigers, 5-0, on sx hits for the Milwaukee Braves in Bradentown; Billy Pierce whitewashed the Washington Senators, 3-0, for the Chicago White Sox in Charleston, S.C., and Bob Friend, ace of the Pittsburgh Pirates' staff, cut down the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-1, in Fort Myers, Fla.

Elsewhere, the San Francisco Giants edged the Cleveland Indians, 7-6, in Denver; the Los Angeles Dodgers downed the Kansas City A's, 3-1, in West Palm Beach; the Cincinnati Reds outlasted the New York Yankees in 10 innings, 7-6, in Tampa, and the Baltimore Orioles turned back the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-4, in Miami.

If his Braves' teammates are overconfident, Spahn certainly is not. It marked the veteran left-hander's second shutout in three starts. The Tigers collected six hits and just two of them got as far as third base.

For Pierce, the triumph was his first nine-inning job of the spring. But in this case the silver lining had a dark cloud. The Sox collected just six singles. They've been having trouble all spring getting anything more than a single.

Friend outpitched another veteran, Robin Roberts. The Pirate righty gave up only six hits. Roberts was touched for 13, including homers by Bill Virdon and Dick Stuart.

Pitching Seen Bright Spot

Chester Will Open 1959 Baseball Season Tuesday

Bolstered by three veteran hurlers and four other returning lettermen, the Cester baseball squad will receive its first test in the 1959 opener at home Tuesday against Beaver Local.

Coach Dom Amedeo has three top pitchers back in righthander Don Shaw, a three-year veteran, senior Dave Brookes a southpaw, and Gary Pugh.

Shaw was the workhorse of the Panther staff last season and will be counted on heavily again.

Other lettermen returning this spring are John Steele, who will go behind the plate, and Kenny Sayres will catch or be used in the outfield.

Amedeo will have Bob McMahon back at second base and Bill Mayhew will find a spot somewhere in the infield.

Other prospects include outfielders Dave Lyons, Frank Kenny, Bill Myers and Jim Kirby and infielder Gary Daugherty. Bil Mackall can be used in the outfield or behind the plate.

Amedeo said 15 freshmen reported this year.

The Panthers will play a 16-game schedule, eight at home. Chester will play its home games at City Park.

The schedule follows:

April 7—Beaver Local, home
April 8—Madonna, away
April 9—East Liverpool, home
April 13—Weirton, away
April 15—Steubenville, away
April 17—South Side, home
April 20—Newell, away
April 22—East Liverpool, away
April 23 —New Cumberland, home
April 27—Weirton, home
April 29—South Side, away
April 30—Steubenville, home
May 4—Newell, home
May 5—Beaver Local, away
May 8—New Cumberland, away

South Side Trips Beaver Local, 8-5

Beaver Local dropped its first start of the 1959 baseball season when South Side came out on top with an 8-5 victory at Hookstown.

The winners broke a 4-4 tie with a lone run in the fifth inning then blasted the game wide open with a three-run outburst in the sixth.

Dick Barnhart led the Beavers at the plate with three hits in four trips.

Beaver Local will seek its first victory Tuesday at Cester.

Potter-Midland Game Set Today At 4:15

The East Liverpool - Midland baseball game postponed Friday will be played today at 4:15 at Patterson Field. It will serve as the opener for the Potters.

Auditing Error Puts Team In 8th At ABC

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Bowlers didn't make a dent in the top 10 standings of any division in the American Bowling Congress Tournament Sunday. But the ABC Auditing Department did.

The department announced Keith's Mens Wear team of Paola, Kan., which rolled Feb. 21, had a total of 2737 pins instead of 2727 as originally reported. The additional 10 pins vaulted the team from 10th to 8th place in the Booster Division.

Miami Lanes of Troy, Ohio, leads the Booster Division with 2848.

Archie Moore To Seek License As Promoter

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore says he wants to become a boxing promoter.

He plans to ask the California Boxing Commission for a license next Saturday.

"There may be promoters with more financial backing than I have, but few with the reputation to match mine in boxing," Moore said.

Zack Taylor, former manager of the St. Louis Browns, is scouting for the Chicago White Sox. So is former slugger Ron Northey.

Leek To Start At Third And Strickland At Short

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians will open the season with George Strickland at shortstop and rookie Gene Leek at third, Manager Joe Gordon says.

Gordon said the opening day lineup, in batting order, probably will be Jim Piersall, centerfield; Vic Power, first base; Minnie Minoso, left field; Rocky Colavito, right field; Russ Nixon, catcher, Billy Martin, second base, followed by Strickland, Leek and Pitcher Gary Bell.

The sudden switch at shortstop from Woodie Held to Strickland came when Held developed a sore shoulder, Gordon said.

Leek, a bonus player signed off the University of Arizona campus, has had no minor league experience. Gordon said Leek is a smoother fielder than Randy Jackson, veteran third baseman who might hit more than the rookie.

"Frank Lane (Indian general manager) and I talked it over and we agreed that it might be better to go for defense at third base," Gordon said.

With the opening day lineup almost set, the Indians Sunday sent pitcher Jake Striker, a 25-year-old Bucyrus, Ohio southpaw, to San Diego in the Pacific Coast League. One player still must be pared from the roster to get down to the 30-player limit by the opener.

The Indians, traveling east and playing the San Francisco Giants a series of exhibition games, dropped two contests over the weekend.

The Giants bombed five Cleveland hurlers for a 17-4 victory in Salt Lake City Saturday and rapped out 10 hits and one home run for a 7-6 victory in Denver Sunday.

Morrow Nips Murchison By Inches For Third Time

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Little Ira Murchison agrees that what he needs most is to add two inches to his chest expansion. Then, he might beat Bobby Morrow, the Olympic sprint champion.

Three times Murchison has lost to Morrow by inches. Last week in the special 100-meter race of the Texas Relays it was only because Morrow stuck his chest out farther at the tape after catching the little man from Chicago in the last five yards.

For the record, Murchison is 5 feet 4 and weighs 135 pounds. Morrow is 6-1 and weighs 180.

Murchison also recalled the NCAA 100-yard dash of 1957 when he was so close to Morrow that both were timed at 9.3, equaling the world's record.

"And that 100-yard dash in the National AAU last year was almost as close," said Murchison. Morrow won in 9.4 with Ira inches behind.

The Morrow-Murchison duel was a highlight of the Texas Relays last weekend as the two speed kings ran the 100 meters in 10.2.

The outstanding mark, however, was a javelin throw of 270 feet 1½ inches by big Bill Alley of Kansas which smashed the American and national collegiate records.

Another outstanding performance was a mile relay in 3:10.3 by Texas. The Longhorns' anchor man, Eddie Southern, turned in a 45.7 quarter-mile on his lap, equalling the world record.

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — An unorthodox baseball grip and a glass-shafted mallet putter are the trademarks of the new Masters golf champion — quiet, modest Art Wall, Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa.

"When I first started playing I never knew there was another way to hold the club," Wall said today of his Mickey Mantle style of whacking a ball. The putter is a recent addition to his bag—replacing an old wooden-shafted blade he had carried for 10 years.

The putter—with three dots on its head to warn against three putts — played a major part in the most dramatic last day comeback in all the 25 years of Masters Tournament play.

Starting six strokes back and in a tie for 13th place, Wall fashioned a brilliant six-under-par 66 Sunday for a total of 284 which left the pace-setters scrambling for runnerup money.

Cary Middlecoff finished in second place at 285. Defending champion Arnold Palmer took a triple bogey six at the 12th hole, the key hole of his success in 1958, and wound up with a 74 for third place at 286.

The old Canadian war horse, Stan Leonard, faltered with a 75 for 287 tie with Dick Mayer. Amateur champion Charlie Coe, three-putting five greens, fell back to 73 for 288.

Wall sank one putt of 20 feet, three of 15 feet and finished with a 12-foot birdie putt on the last hole.

"I never doubted I could make it," he said.

He had five birdies on the last six holes.

Wall's victory earned him $15,000 and pushed his year's money winnings past $30,000, giving him the thickest wallet on the tour.

Wall is 35 years old, son of a state representative from Honesdale, Pa., and a pro for 10 years. But until this year, he never made a serious threat for the golf pinnacles which have been occupied by such stars as Ben Hogan and Sam Snead, now on the decline. Hogan finished at 295 and got a consolation check of $300. Snead had 293 and banked $1,275.

Palmer and the balding, 44-year-old Leonard started the final day tied for the lead at 212, one shot better than Middlecoff and three better than amateur Coe.

Palmer appeared a cinch, even after his nightmarish triple bogey six at the 12th, until he missed a three-foot putt on the 17th and a five-footer at the 18th.

The Masters drew more than 100,000 spectators during the four days—close to 50,000 on Saturday alone—and proved itself one of the big spectacles of sports.

Event Draws 100,000

CHARDON, Ohio (AP)—The 30th annual Geauga County Maple Festival drew an estimated 100,000 persons during the three weekends the event was held. More than 40,000 turned out Sunday for the final day.

Thorn Named As Captain Of All-Star Team

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. (AP) — State champion South Charleston dominated the 1959 All-West Virginia High School Basketball Team announced Saturday, but Princeton's Rod Thorn was selected captain as he was honored for the third straight year.

Carl Ward, a 6-2 forward, and 5-9 guard Bill Londeree, sparkplugs in the Black Eagles' state tournament triumph last month at Huntington, are the South Charleston representatives.

The team announced Saturday includes Class AAA, Class AA, Class A and Catholic scholastic cagers and is referred to as the big all-state.

The only junior on the eight-man first team is Bill Maphis, a 6-3 performer from Romney. The squad's height average is 6-1½, the average weight of the players 165 pounds and the average age 17.

Gay Elmore of Charleston Stonewall Jackson, Huntington's Corky Layman, Jim Miller of Parkersburg and Pancho Flores of Wheeling Central, state Catholic champion, were the other first team choices.

Miller and Thorn are the tallest players, each standing 6 feet, 5 inches.

Elmore is 6-3, Layman 5-11, and Flores 5-9.

Only Maphis and Flores are from outside the triple-A ranks. Romney is a Class AA school.

Redlegs Start Moving North

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs pulled out of their spring training base here today and strangely enough, there were no outright claims to the 1959 league pennant.

Cautious Manager Mayo Smith put it this way:

"If the pitching is as good as it looked the final two weeks of training, we'll be tough—yes, real tough. That's the only 'if' on the club at this time.

The Reds' trip back to Crosley Field this year will not be that usual "slow boat to Cincinnati." Instead of barnstorming through the south, they'll have only a game with their Savannah farmhands at Palatka, Fla., today, one with the New York Yankees in Savannah, Ga., Tuesday and one with the Chicago White Sox at Indianapolis Wednesday.

The Reds open at home against Pittsburgh Thursday.

Redleg pitching wasn't anything to get excited about Sunday as they closed out their exhibition season here with a 7-6 victory over the Yankees.

It took a two-run homer by Johnny Powers in the 10th inning to bring victory.

Bob Purkey gave up six hits and three runs in six innings. Bob Mabe allowed two hits and no runs in two innings and Orlando Pena gave up three runs and four hits in two frames.

But the Rhinelanders rattled 16 hits off three Yankee pitchers. Powers' homer came after the Yanks had taken the lead in their half of the 10th.

Yanks Release Trucks; Pitcher Eyes National

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Virgil Trucks, 40-year-old right-hander, was unconditionally released today by the New York Yankees.

The Yankees obtained him last June in a deal with Kansas City. Trucks broke in with Detroit in 1941 and has a lifetime record of 177-135 for a .567 percentage in the American League. His ERA for 19 seasons is 3.38.

Trucks said he would shop for a job with a National League team.

Los Angeles Writers To Honor Stan Musial

LOS ANGELES (AP)—St. Louis Cardinal outfielder Stan Musial will be given a special trophy for "meritorious service and contribution to baseball" April 13 when the local chapter of the Baseball Writers Assn. holds its second annual Dodger Dinner.

Musial has been batting champion of the National League seven times and most valuable player in 1943, 1946 and 1948.

Yankees Selected To Win Again In American Loop

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The rest of the American League may be catching up with the New York Yankees, but the year of reckoning is not yet here.

Because of their wealth of proven players, their vast depth in pitching, their multitude of extra manpower and their extraordinary maneuverability, the defending champions must be picked to win their fifth consecutive championship and their 10th in 11 years under Casey Stengel.

The Yankees are not invulnerable, but the feeling is that not one of their rivals has bolstered itself sufficiently to make a successful bid for the pennant. The team that has a chance to at least make a token challenge seems to be Detroit with its vastly strengthened pitching staff and a lineup that includes such solid hitters as Al Kaline, Harvey Kuenn and Frank Bolling.

Chicago, the perennial runner-up, doesn't appear to have gained strength to overhaul the Yankees.

Boston, with a re-shaped pitching staff, and outfield problems stemming from the trade of center fielder Jimmy Piersall to a flock of injuries capped by Ted Williams' pain in the neck, may slip into the second division.

The possible order of finish: 1, New York. 2, Detroit. 3, Chicago. 4, Cleveland. 5, Boston. 6, Baltimore. 7, Kansas City. 8, Washington.

The Yankees are a solid team with the possible exception of shortstop and left field. A return to form of Tony Kubek, back from the Army, and a revitalized Norm Siebern could erase these problems, too. The arm troubles of Whitey Ford and Don Larsen could slow up baseball's mightiest machine, but in the long run it would seem that the champs' biggest enemy is complacency, real or imaginary.

How long Detroit stays in contention depends upon three things. Relief aces Don Mossi and Ray Narleski must do the job they were brought in to do—stop enemy attacks efficiently and promptly. Veteran third baseman Eddie Yost and shortstop Rocky Bridges must stay fresh and able for all of the campaign. First baseman Gail Harris and whoever plays left field—Charlie Maxwell or Larry Doby—must add their bats to Kaline, Kuenn and company.

The White Sox have a solid front line pitching staff, a brilliant defense sparked by the exciting double play combination of Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox, a fine centerfielder in Jim Landis and standout catching. They are weak, however, at first and third base and have an inferior bullpen.

Cleveland might be the surprise of the league, but they have too many ifs. Herb Score must come back with a standout season, Rocky Colavito must continue his spectacular hitting of last July, August and September, Piersall and Billy Martin must provide the spark and dash the club lacked last year, and Woody Held must fill the gap at shortstop.

The Red Sox should score more runs largely because of the addition of first baseman Vic Wertz and the availability of Hayward Sullivan behind the plate. The latter, who appeared to have won the No. 1 catching berth last spring, was sidelined all season with a back injury. Pitching may be Boston's biggest headache.

Baltimore has solid pitching headed by Billy O'Dell, Milt Pappas, Arnie Portocarrero, Jack Harshman, Hec Brown and Hoyt Wilhelm. The Orioles have a slugging catcher in Gus Triandos, a highly promising rookie center fielder in Willie Tasby, and a pair of proven hitters in Bob Nieman and Gene Woodling. They are shy on power, have a shaky infield and weak bench.

Kansas City has added some bench strength, owns a solid front line outfield in Bob Cerv, Roger Maris and Bill Tuttle, and can throw a couple of good pitchers at you such as Ralph Terry and Bob Grim. But the Athletics have an infield problem and they could use more starting pitchers.

Roy Sievers, Albie Pearson, Pedro Ramos, Camilo Pascual and Dick Hyde. After that, Washington has a bunch of guys named Joe. It looks like another long season for manager Cookie Lavagetto.

Stengel Firm On Policy 'Never Trade With Lane'

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — "You can put this down, and I mean it," said Casey Stengel one warm evening. "I'll never trade with that Frank Lane as long as I have anything to do with the New York Yankees."

Despite the warmth, it was obvious the Yankee manager has a chilly opinion of the Cleveland general manager.

"Why out at the Colorado Springs meetings a year ago December he's got all my players, even Yogi Berra.

"He's always calling. Must work for the telephone company. Know what I do when he calls? Why, if he gets me I tell him, 'See Mr. Weiss' (Yankee general manager George Weiss). And when he calls Weiss what do you think Weiss says? Why he says, 'See Casey.' We got a system.

"That's why we keep winning. We don't trade with the trader.

"The other day he comes out here at Miller Huggins Field, stands behind our batting cage and talks to all my players and my writers. He lives here in St. Pete, you know. If he's so smart why does he have the Indians training in Tucson, Ariz.?

"Well, he comes out, see, and I'm in the outfield, then I'm back inside getting my rash treated. No, he didn't give it to me. Well, he thinks I'm ducking him. He's a smart man. He wants one of my third basemen."

Lane has been after Andy Carey for some time, especially since the Yankees finished paying him that bonus of about $35,000 he got when he signed. Lane also would like to have Bobby Richardson bolster the weak side of the Cleveland infield. He's been after Richardson for more than two years.

"Nope," sad Casey, "I'll never trade with him."

Suppose he mentions Rocky Colavito, his right fielder and one of the rising stars of the American League?

"If he mentions that boy," said Stengel, backing off a bit, "he's got himself a deal. I'll even throw in one of my six first basemen, maybe two."

PGA Official Credits Junior Golf For Fine Group Of Professionals

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — This nation's golf game is improving all the time, said Harvey Raynor, shepherd of the sport's touring flock of professionals.

Stealing a few moments from the job of directing the Texas Open, the PGA tournament supervisor discussed the present state of American golf.

There are more new faces on the professional tour this year than ever before, he said, thanks to the vast improvement in amateur golf since World War II.

New interest in junior and college golf is responsible, said Raynor. The junior chamber of commerce and other national organizations have promoted junior golf while the colleges are emphasizing the game more than ever before.

"You don't think there are more good golfers?" asked Raynor. "Well, take the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas. In 1953, when it was started, there were 17 entries. This time 28 already have qualified for it."

To play in the tournament, a golfer must win one of the tournaments on the PGA tour.

"The average scoring for the tournaments is lower," Raynor said. "Records are being set every year."

Kids 15 years old at the end of the war are top players on the tour now, said Raynor. They came up, not through the caddie ranks as formerly, but through high school, college and amateur golf.

Raynor ticked off the names of about 35 professionals who made the grade this way, including Paul Harney, Ken Venturi, Shelley Mayfield, Arnold Palmer, Dow Finsterwald, Art Wall, Jay Herbert, Mike Souchak, Billy Maxwell and Gene Littler.

High-Jump Sensation Set To Leave Hospital

BOSTON (AP) — High jump phenom John Thomas today was scheduled to transfer from Massachusetts Memorial Hospital to the Boston University Infirmary.

Thomas was given an okay to leave the hospital Sunday after a final examination by Dr. Chester Howe. The 18-year-old freshman has been hospitalized 12 days since he caught his left foot in an elevator door.

Thomas bettered the world record for the high jump when he leaped 7 feet 1¼ inches in February.

Man's Body Found

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—The body of John Visconavitch, 75, was found along Allyn Road north of Ohio 82 Sunday. He had been missing for 11 days from the Wesley Home for the Aged, near where his body was found. Police said he apparently died from exposure. The coroner's office will rule.

Japanese Await Friday Wedding Of Their Prince

TOKYO (AP) — The weatherman came up with some bad news today for Crown Prince Akihito.

"Cloudy and occasional rain" is the forecast for April 10, the date of the prince's wedding to Michiko Shoda.

Even showers aren't expected to dampen the public gaiety for the biggest social event in Japan since Akihito's parents were wed 33 years ago. More than a million persons probably will jam the five-mile route along which the couple will be driven after the ceremony.

Police issued special rules for the giant crowd in an attempt to preserve some sort of decorum.

Firecrackers are banned and so are loud music, throwing of streamers, balloons and bouquets, flash bulbs for pictures and jumping into the street.

Pirates Have Pennant Potential, Thomas Says

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — "I have no bitter feeling about being traded by Pittsburgh to Cincinnati," All-Star third baseman Frank Thomas said. "That's baseball."

And he proved his point as he analyzed the Pirates' chances in the coming National League pennant race.

"If Cincinnati does not win the pennant—and we have a good chance," said Thomas, "I hope the Pirates win it. My home is in Pittsburgh, but now I'm wearing a Cincinnati uniform.

"Maybe the Pirates made a mistake in trading me. I think they did. I feel like having a good year. Those 35 homers last year and those 109 runs batted in represented my highs, and my .281 was above my lifetime .274.

"I know that I'm a better outfielder than an infielder. (He led the league in errors at third.) But I never played as much third base as last year. The experience helped me. I should be a better third sacker this year. I also have my first baseman's mit handy. I'll play anywhere.

"The Pirates? With the pitching staff, which has depth, they can win the flag. Curt Raydon may surprise. He won only eight last year. I roomed with him. He keeps the ball low, like any pitcher with a winning record.

"I think Bob Skinner and Stan Musial (Skinner is Pirate left fielder), are the best left-handed hitters in the league. The Pirates have a fine double play pair in Dick Groat (short) and Bill Mazeroski (second). But if injuries occur to ether of them the Pirates are in trouble. They have no depth at short or second.

"Now Gene Baker is a real good utility man, but he had a knee operation. This Mazeroski is great. He has real good hands."

The 29-year-old Thomas, who once studied for the priesthood, says he is looking forward to this season. He hopes to be picked again to play in the All-Star game, scheduled for July 7 in Pittsburgh.

The Redlegs are counting heavily on Thomas. The young slugger led the Pirates in RBI's in four of the last six seasons.

Last season, he hit seven homers in Los Angeles, the most by a visitor. He got only nine in 77 games in Pittsburgh. He should do better in Cincinnati—left field is 37 feet shorter than in Pittsburgh's Forbes Field.

In 1958, there were a total of 711 stakes races at American thoroughbred race tracks with a total of $14,640,286 — an all-time record — in added money.

Wall's 284 Brings Him Crown In Master's Golf Tourney

New Champ Fires 66 In Final Round

"He's always calling. Must work for the telephone company. Know what I do when he calls? Why, if he gets me I tell him, 'See Mr. Weiss' (Yankee general manager George Weiss). And when he calls Weiss what do you think Weiss says? Why he says, 'See Casey.' We got a system.

"That's why we keep winning. We don't trade with the trader.

"The other day he comes out here at Miller Huggins Field, stands behind our batting cage and talks to all my players and my writers. He lives here in St. Pete, you know. If he's so smart why does he have the Indians training in Tucson, Ariz.?

"Well, he comes out, see, and I'm in the outfield, then I'm back inside getting my rash treated. No, he didn't give it to me. Well, he thinks I'm ducking him. He's a smart man. He wants one of my third basemen."

Lane has been after Andy Carey for some time, especially since the Yankees finished paying him that bonus of about $35,000 he got when he signed. Lane also would like to have Bobby Richardson bolster the weak side of the Cleveland infield. He's been after Richardson for more than two years.

"Nope," sad Casey, "I'll never trade with him."

Suppose he mentions Rocky Colavito, his right fielder and one of the rising stars of the American League?

"If he mentions that boy," said Stengel, backing off a bit, "he's got himself a deal. I'll even throw in one of my six first basemen, maybe two."

PGA Official Credits Junior Golf For Fine Group Of Professionals

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — This nation's golf game is improving all the time, said Harvey Raynor, shepherd of the sport's touring flock of professionals.

Stealing a few moments from the job of directing the Texas Open, the PGA tournament supervisor discussed the present state of American golf.

There are more new faces on the professional tour this year than ever before, he said, thanks to the vast improvement in amateur golf since World War II.

New interest in junior and college golf is responsible, said Raynor. The junior chamber of commerce and other national organizations have promoted junior golf while the colleges are emphasizing the game more than ever before.

"You don't think there are more good golfers?" asked Raynor. "Well, take the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas. In 1953, when it was started, there were 17 entries. This time 28 already have qualified for it."

To play in the tournament, a golfer must win one of the tournaments on the PGA tour.

"The average scoring for the tournaments is lower," Raynor said. "Records are being set every year."

Kids 15 years old at the end of the war are top players on the tour now, said Raynor. They came up, not through the caddie ranks as formerly, but through high school, college and amateur golf.

Raynor ticked off the names of about 35 professionals who made the grade this way, including Paul Harney, Ken Venturi, Shelley Mayfield, Arnold Palmer, Dow Finsterwald, Art Wall, Jay Herbert, Mike Souchak, Billy Maxwell and Gene Littler.

High-Jump Sensation Set To Leave Hospital

BOSTON (AP) — High jump phenom John Thomas today was scheduled to transfer from Massachusetts Memorial Hospital to the Boston University Infirmary.

Thomas was given an okay to leave the hospital Sunday after a final examination by Dr. Chester Howe. The 18-year-old freshman has been hospitalized 12 days since he caught his left foot in an elevator door.

Thomas bettered the world record for the high jump when he leaped 7 feet 1¼ inches in February.

Man's Body Found

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—The body of John Visconavitch, 75, was found along Allyn Road north of Ohio 82 Sunday. He had been missing for 11 days from the Wesley Home for the Aged, near where his body was found. Police said he apparently died from exposure. The coroner's office will rule.

Japanese Await Friday Wedding Of Their Prince

TOKYO (AP) — The weatherman came up with some bad news today for Crown Prince Akihito.

"Cloudy and occasional rain" is the forecast for April 10, the date of the prince's wedding to Michiko Shoda.

Even showers aren't expected to dampen the public gaiety for the biggest social event in Japan since Akihito's parents were wed 33 years ago. More than a million persons probably will jam the five-mile route along which the couple will be driven after the ceremony.

Police issued special rules for the giant crowd in an attempt to preserve some sort of decorum.

Firecrackers are banned and so are loud music, throwing of streamers, balloons and bouquets, flash bulbs for pictures and jumping into the street.

Pirates Have Pennant Potential, Thomas Says

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — "I have no bitter feeling about being traded by Pittsburgh to Cincinnati," All-Star third baseman Frank Thomas said. "That's baseball."

And he proved his point as he analyzed the Pirates' chances in the coming National League pennant race.

"If Cincinnati does not win the pennant—and we have a good chance," said Thomas, "I hope the Pirates win it. My home is in Pittsburgh, but now I'm wearing a Cincinnati uniform.

"Maybe the Pirates made a mistake in trading me. I think they did. I feel like having a good year. Those 35 homers last year and those 109 runs batted in represented my highs, and my .281 was above my lifetime .274.

"I know that I'm a better outfielder than an infielder. (He led the league in errors at third.) But I never played as much third base as last year. The experience helped me. I should be a better third sacker this year. I also have my first baseman's mit handy. I'll play anywhere.

"The Pirates? With the pitching staff, which has depth, they can win the flag. Curt Raydon may surprise. He won only eight last year. I roomed with him. He keeps the ball low, like any pitcher with a winning record.

"I think Bob Skinner and Stan Musial (Skinner is Pirate left fielder), are the best left-handed hitters in the league. The Pirates have a fine double play pair in Dick Groat (short) and Bill Mazeroski (second). But if injuries occur to ether of them the Pirates are in trouble. They have no depth at short or second.

"Now Gene Baker is a real good utility man, but he had a knee operation. This Mazeroski is great. He has real good hands."

The 29-year-old Thomas, who once studied for the priesthood, says he is looking forward to this season. He hopes to be picked again to play in the All-Star game, scheduled for July 7 in Pittsburgh.

The Redlegs are counting heavily on Thomas. The young slugger led the Pirates in RBI's in four of the last six seasons.

Last season, he hit seven homers in Los Angeles, the most by a visitor. He got only nine in 77 games in Pittsburgh. He should do better in Cincinnati—left field is 37 feet shorter than in Pittsburgh's Forbes Field.

In 1958, there were a total of 711 stakes races at American thoroughbred race tracks with a total of $14,640,286 — an all-time record — in added money.

The Honeymoon Is Over For Democrats In Ohio

By DUANE E. CROFT
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The hedging of a couple of weeks ago is no longer necessary.

The "chinks" that were appearing then in the solid Democratic front now look more like wide-open schisms.

It's perfectly safe by this time to come right out and say the honeymoon in the Statehouse is over. If there ever was a honeymoon, that is.

The bitter exchange of letters between Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and Sen. Charles J. Carney of Youngstown was simply a public admission of a long-smoldering feud. As the chief executive said in his reply to the senator's first blast:

"Our differences go back several months, even antedating the election. You, as a member of the Democratic Platform Committee, differed with me quite violently on the language and the inclusion of several of the planks in the platform."

AND SEN. Arthur Blake's attempt to embarrass the leadership by demanding an investigation of the State Liquor Department's anti-gambling squad came as no real surprise to his colleagues.

The veteran legislator from Martins Ferry has expressed his rancor in more than one majority caucus at being passed over in the choicest committee assignments.

Particularly irritating was the fact that his five previous terms failed to land him on the Rules Committee, the power plant of the Senate.

It was natural that the boiling point in some of these old brews was reached first in the Senate.

As on Washington's Capitol Hill, the upper chamber at the Statehouse operates something like an exclusive club. Cliques tend to form and jealousies keep them running.

-:-

WHEN TROUBLE pops up, it frequently takes on a personal touch not evidenced in the bigger and more impersonal House.

And when conflict deals in personalities rather than issues, it is more colorful and more bitter, which invites more attention.

That's why it's popular now to say the Statehouse honeymoon is over. The animosities have been there all the time. They are just becoming more visible.

And that development brings a sigh of relief from the veteran political observers here.

For, they say, things are at last getting back to normal.

The Quipsters

The Carney-DiSalle exchange recalls a quip for which the fiery senator has become famous in these parts.

Asked if he had calmed down after a particularly heated debate on a bill close to his heart, Carney replied:

"I'm the most even-tempered man in the Senate. I'm always mad."

And DiSalle, of course, is no mean quipster either. Meeting Carney at the press corps' annual Gridiron Banquet just after their war of letters, the governor smiled and said to the bystanders:

"He's my pen pal."

Taxpayers' Lobby

Both houses of the Democratic-controlled 103rd General Assembly extended the courtesy of the rostrum to former Republican members during the week.

The visitors' brief remarks might well have tagged them as "lobbyists for the taxpayers."

J. Frank McClure of Loudonville, highly respected chairman of the House Finance Committee for several sessions before his retirement last year, appeared Tuesday just as the lower chamber was about to vote on the first major tax bill of the DiSalle program—the corporation franchise tax boost.

"I see you have an uncontroversial bill before you," he said with tongue in cheek. "I ask now that you view me only as a taxpayer. I hope you will do your best for me.'

Portsmouth Postmaster Leo Blackburn, a member of the Senate in the 99th Assembly back in 1951, visited the upper house Wednesday.

"I don't want to take up too much of your time," he said with a chuckle. "I know you want to get back to work and lower my taxes."

Statehouse Improved

Long-time Republican Rep. Guy C. Hiner of Stark County is a satisfied man these days.

The second part of his two-point plan to beautify the Statehouse has been accomplished.

Under pressure from both the state and the city of Columbus, a somewhat seedy-looking newsstand has been removed from the Broad-and-High corner of the State house grounds.

And, as the result of a bill which Hiner co-sponsored in the last session, the Statehouse now is bathed in bright light at night.

"The building used to look so dingy," Hiner says, "That people would ask me if it was the state prison. Now it looks impressive, the way a capitol should."

Ironic postscript: The power comes from the state prison.

New Approach Will Be Tried In Fight Over Wheat Control

DOWAGIAC, Mich. (AP)—The man who bought Stanley Yankus' poultry farm says he will carry on the rebel farmer's wheat control fight with the government but in a different way.

Dale Douthett, 55, of Three Oaks, Mich., bought the farm at auction Saturday for $20,500.

In all, Yankus realized $30,000 from his farm and other possessions. He plans to take his family to Australia.

Douthett said he would attempt to get Congress to change the laws governing the production of crops, rather than rebel against them as Yankus did.

"You can't bend the laws to suit the individual," he said. "If the law is unfair then we must get Congress to change it."

Yankus paid some $5,000 in fines and penalties in six years of fighting the government to grow wheat as feed for his poultry flock.

Douthett said he has no immediate plans for the farm, although he did say he will plow under Yankus' present winter wheat crop before the May 15 deadline under crop laws.

Yankus and his family have passports and have taken preliminary inoculations for the Australian trip. He will stay on the farm for about 30 days to clear up personal matters.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Longshore Union Favors 35 Hours

SEATTLE, (AP) — West Coast longshore leaders today proposed a 35-hour work week, reduced retirement age and higher minimum wages to help meet "displacement of men by machines."

Officers of the International Longshoremen's & Warehousemen's Union said in a convention report that labor can help maintain employment by seeking "further reductions in the work week without reductions in pay."

The report to the ILWU's 13th biennial convention opening today was signed by Harry Bridges, president; Louis Goldblatt, secretary-treasurer, and Vice Presidents J. R. Robertson and Germain Bulcke.

They also advocated more and longer unemployment pay, easier disability pensions, medical benefits for Social Security beneficiaries, a national health service, and action "to reduce the burden of taxes, both federal and state."

15 Students To Attend Meeting In Youngstown

About 15 members of the Keramos Echo staff will attend a meeting of the Tri - County Journalism Association Wednesday night at Youngstown Rayen High School.

Four of the staff will submit entries in the annual writing contest. They are Jim Calhoun, who also is association president, Art Thomas, Bill McWhorter and Elsa Rubin.

A report also will be made on the paper's entry in the Kelly project, which is concerned with school improvement.

A photographer from the Youngstown Vindicator will speak.

Four members of the yearbook staff will attend a meeting Wednesday at Hiram College. They will be Bruce Jones, Gayle McCall, Davee Lou Beadle and Shirley Mowery.

Dentist Launches Duty At Coast Naval Station

Dr. James Robert Ross, husband of the former Miss Lucy Kay Welborn of Georgetown, reported Wednesday to the Naval Training Station at San Diego, Calif., to intern for two years.

He received a doctor of dental surgery degree at March 23 commencement exercises at the University of Tennessee. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ross of Sayresville, N. J.

He also is a graduate of Elizabethton (Tenn.) High School and attended East Tennessee State College at Johnson City, Tenn., before entering the dental college.

He and Mrs. Ross lived at Memphis, Tenn., after their marriage in Georgetown last June. She is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Welborn.

Advisory Council Acts

Democratic Unit Pushes Spending

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic Advisory Council proposes that Democratic leaders in Congress ignore President Eisenhower's economy drive and get busy with a spending program to boost the nation's economy.

"The Democratic party does not believe in spending for its own sake but we know that a nation which is doing too little is not spending too much," the council said Sunday.

Among other things, the advisory group advocated more aid to the unemployed and more aid to housing, slum clearance, school construction and economically distressed areas.

"Once more we are witnessing callous Republican indifference to the suffering and needs of people who, through no fault of their own, are unable to obtain jobs," the council said.

The 27-member group includes former President Truman, Adlai Stevenson and Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler.

Although the council statement didn't mention names, it clearly was an appeal to the party's congressional leaders, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn, both Texas Democrats, to speed action on economic aid legislation when Congress returns from its Easter recess.

Meanwhile, a private study of federal budget prospects indicated that it may be five years before the government has a surplus large enough to permit a significant tax cut.

Even if rigid economy is enforced, the report suggested, government costs will climb steadily from 1960 through 1968. However, it said that federal revenues may begin to exceed spending by 1962 if full employment is achieved and maintained.

The report was prepared by Dr. Otto Eckstein, a Harvard economist, for the Committee for Economic Development, a privately supported research organization of businessmen and educators.

Kathy Crosby Expects Stork Again This Fall

ISHPEMING, Mich. (AP) — Bing Crosby's wife has confirmed she is an expectant mother again.

The crooner's wife — Kathy Grant — made the announcement Sunday after she arrived to begin work on a picture, "The Anatomy of a Murder." She said the baby is expected in September or October.

Crosby's marriage to the pretty brown-eyed actress Oct. 24, 1957, surprised friends and relatives although they had been dating four years. He was 53 and she was 23.

Kathy gave birth to a son last August.

Seaman Back In States

KENSINGTON — Fire Control Technician 1C Stanley C. Roach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Roach, was aboard the radar picket destroyer Fechteler which has returned to Long Beach, Calif., after a five - month tour of duty with the 7th Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Charlotte Paper Bought By Knight

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — The Charlotte News was purchased Sunday by the Knight Publishing Co., which owns the Charlotte Observer and newspapers in Miami, Detroit and Akron, Ohio.

No sale figure was announced, but unconfirmed reports put the price at between one and a half and two million dollars.

Thomas L. Robinson, publisher and principal owner of the News, announced the sale. He said it was "absolutely essential from an economic standpoint" because increasing costs had exceeded gains in advertising and circulation revenue.

The News has a circulation of 65,000 and is the largest afternoon paper in the Carolinas. The Observer's circulation is 154,000 daily and 173,000 Sunday.

Lisbon Board To Meet

LISBON — Action on the annual appropriation for 1959, appointment of three new teachers and purchasing of supplies for new rooms to be built at Lincoln School will be on the agenda for the meeting of the Lisbon Board of Education Tuesday evening, according to Supt. Loren Early. Other business will be transacted.

More Planes And Missiles Termed Vital

WASHINGTON (AP)—The chief of America's strategic bomber fleet contends plane and missile production must be boosted if the United States is to maintain the power to deter the Soviet Union from war.

"We have the deterrent posture today. We can lose it tomorrow," Gen. Thomas S. Power told a House Appropriations subcommittee in a closed-door hearing Feb. 13. A heavily censored transcript of his remarks was made public Sunday.

Power, head of the Strategic Air Command, called for faster and greater production of B52 and B58 manned jet bombers and Atlas intercontinental ballistic missiles.

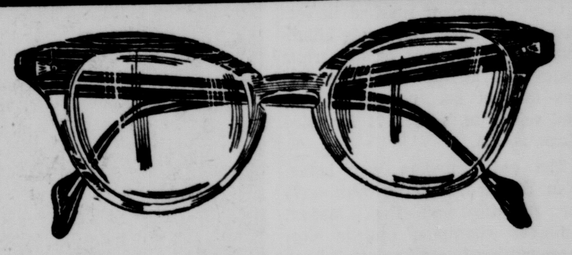

Asked how important he viewed his recommendations, Power replied:

"I think you are just risking the whole country. That is how important I feel it is. If you do not deter (the Soviets) nobody is going to win a thermonuclear war."

Although the council statement didn't mention names, it clearly was an appeal to the party's congressional leaders, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn, both Texas Democrats, to speed action on economic aid legislation when Congress returns from its Easter recess.

Meanwhile, a private study of federal budget prospects indicated that it may be five years before the government has a surplus large enough to permit a significant tax cut.

Even if rigid economy is enforced, the report suggested, government costs will climb steadily from 1960 through 1968. However, it said that federal revenues may begin to exceed spending by 1962 if full employment is achieved and maintained.

The report was prepared by Dr. Otto Eckstein, a Harvard economist, for the Committee for Economic Development, a privately supported research organization of businessmen and educators.

Kathy Crosby Expects Stork Again This Fall

ISHPEMING, Mich. (AP) — Bing Crosby's wife has confirmed she is an expectant mother again.

The crooner's wife — Kathy Grant — made the announcement Sunday after she arrived to begin work on a picture, "The Anatomy of a Murder." She said the baby is expected in September or October.

Crosby's marriage to the pretty brown-eyed actress Oct. 24, 1957, surprised friends and relatives although they had been dating four years. He was 53 and she was 23.

Kathy gave birth to a son last August.

Charlotte Paper Bought By Knight

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP) — The Charlotte News was purchased Sunday by the Knight Publishing Co., which owns the Charlotte Observer and newspapers in Miami, Detroit and Akron, Ohio.

No sale figure was announced, but unconfirmed reports put the price at between one and a half and two million dollars.

Thomas L. Robinson, publisher and principal owner of the News, announced the sale. He said it was "absolutely essential from an economic standpoint" because increasing costs had exceeded gains in advertising and circulation revenue.

The News has a circulation of 65,000 and is the largest afternoon paper in the Carolinas. The Observer's circulation is 154,000 daily and 173,000 Sunday.

Lisbon Board To Meet

LISBON — Action on the annual appropriation for 1959, appointment of three new teachers and purchasing of supplies for new rooms to be built at Lincoln School will be on the agenda for the meeting of the Lisbon Board of Education Tuesday evening, according to Supt. Loren Early. Other business will be transacted.

More Planes And Missiles Termed Vital

WASHINGTON (AP)—The chief of America's strategic bomber fleet contends plane and missile production must be boosted if the United States is to maintain the power to deter the Soviet Union from war.

"We have the deterrent posture today. We can lose it tomorrow," Gen. Thomas S. Power told a House Appropriations subcommittee in a closed-door hearing Feb. 13. A heavily censored transcript of his remarks was made public Sunday.

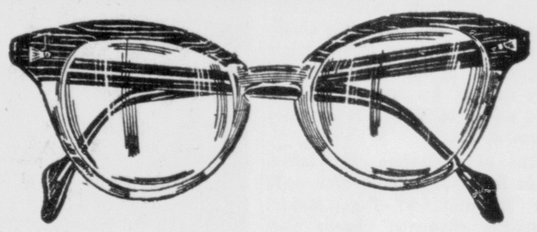

Power, head of the Strategic Air Command, called for faster and greater production of B52 and B58 manned jet bombers and Atlas intercontinental ballistic missiles.

Asked how important he viewed his recommendations, Power replied:

"I think you are just risking the whole country. That is how important I feel it is. If you do not deter (the Soviets) nobody is going to win a thermonuclear war."

Suffocation Probed

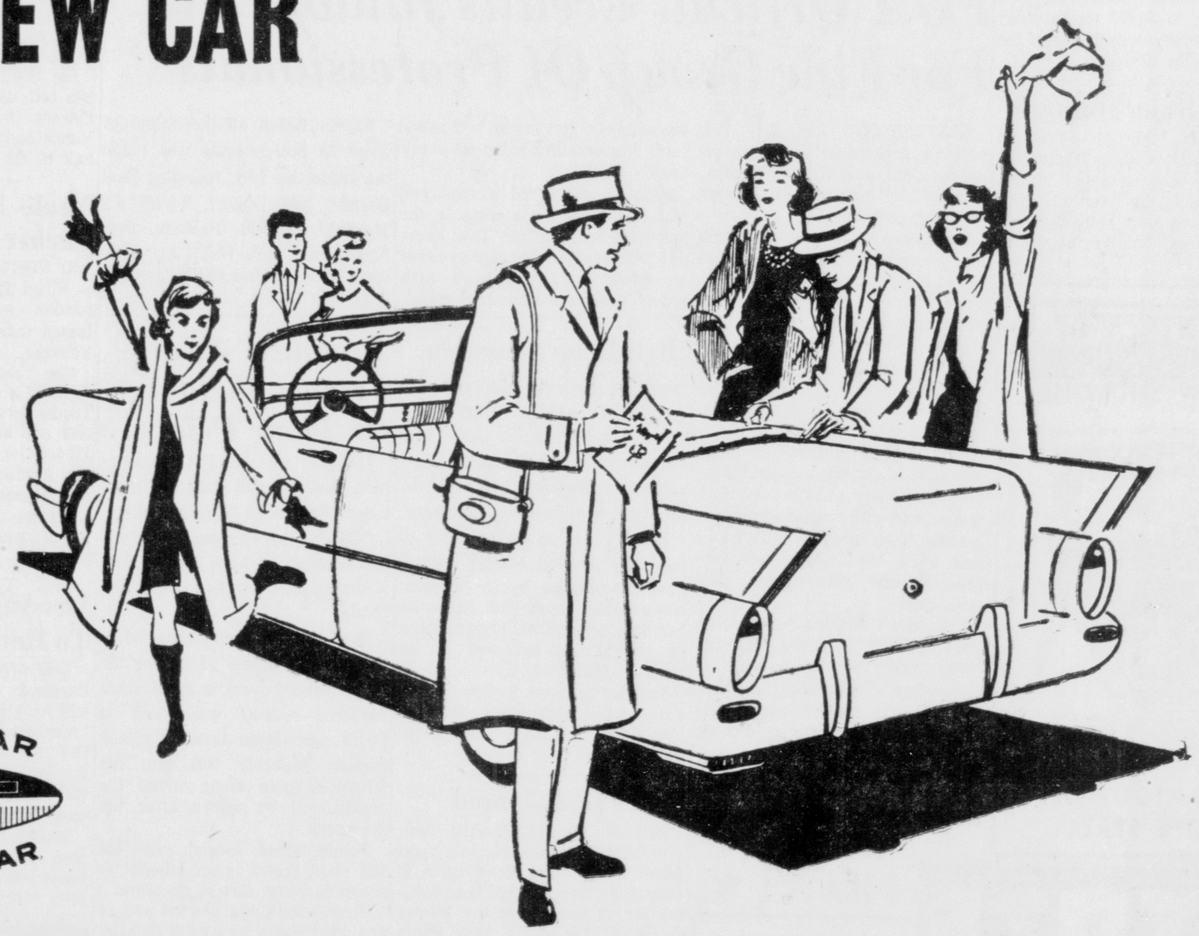

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Garret J. Boone, Butler County coroner, continued his investigation today in the suffocation of a five-months old baby found dead in bed early Sunday with four other children.

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN memory of our loving Daughter, EMMA FISHBACK, who passed away so suddenly one year ago today, APRIL 6, 1958. How we miss her cheery laughter and her smiling face. For she always made happiness all around the place. If she knew of the grief and sorrow she would say try to keep the tear away and be happy for we will meet again someday.
SADLY MISSED BY:
Mother and Dad, Sisters and Brother, Mr. and Mrs. William Grimm.

EMMA FISHBACK. In loving remembrance of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, who was called home one year ago today: Sad and sudden was the call of one so dear and loved by all. Her loving heart had ceased to beat. Before we knew it, she was gone. A bitter grief, a shock severe, to part with one we loved so dear. God loved her too and thought it best. So He took her home to eternal rest. But only those who loved her best can tell the heartache of not saying a last farewell.
Sadly missed by her husband, Bert Fishback, Sons and Daughters.

3 CARD OF THANKS

WE wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends and neighbors whose expressions of sympathy meant so much to us upon the death of our beloved brother, CHARLES K. GRIMES. Special thanks to the staff at the Fox Nursing Home, Chester, Rev. Earliss Gleaton, and Arner Funeral Home.
Signed Maude, Edna, Ben.

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN memory of our loving Daughter, EMMA FISHBACK, who passed away so suddenly one year ago today, APRIL 6, 1958. How we miss her cheery laughter and her smiling face. For she always made happiness all around the place. If she knew of the grief and sorrow she would say try to keep the tear away and be happy for we will meet again someday.
SADLY MISSED BY:
Mother and Dad, Sisters and Brother, Mr. and Mrs. William Grimm.

EMMA FISHBACK. In loving remembrance of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, who was called home one year ago today: Sad and sudden was the call of one so dear and loved by all. Her loving heart had ceased to beat. Before we knew it, she was gone. A bitter grief, a shock severe, to part with one we loved so dear. God loved her too and thought it best. So He took her home to eternal rest. But only those who loved her best can tell the heartache of not saying a last farewell.
Sadly missed by her husband, Bert Fishback, Sons and Daughters.

3 CARD OF THANKS

WE wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends and neighbors whose expressions of sympathy meant so much to us upon the death of our beloved brother, CHARLES K. GRIMES. Special thanks to the staff at the Fox Nursing Home, Chester, Rev. Earliss Gleaton, and Arner Funeral Home. Signed Maude, Edna, Ben.
